Sudden Seizure Is Fatal to Former Pastor of St. Mark's
Zion Church

DANIEL L. HAYNES

The Rev. Dr. Daniel Leo Haynes, former pastor of St. Mark's A.M.E. Church and prior to his being ordained as a minister a very prominent actor and screen star, died suddenly last evening. He was seized with a heart attack at his home, 236 Catherine street, and died before being admitted to Kingston Hospital following the summoning of an ambulance.

Dr. Haynes was an excellent speaker and had addressed service clubs and other organizations in this city on numerous occasions. He was a singer of prominence and his bass voice had been heard in many parts of the country where he was featured as a member of the original "Show Boat," "Green Pastures" and "Hallelujah." His humorous interpretation of the book "Green Pastures" had been given locally and before many large audiences.

Had Fine Voice

Born at Atlanta, Georgia, June 6, 1892, a son of the late Charles and Mollie Haynes, he possessed a magnificent bass voice which was featured in numerous musicals and plays.

During World War I he was a YMCA worker and served overseas. He was a field worker of the Central Hudson Baptist Association; an associate worker of the Riverside Baptist Church of this city; a member of the Kingston Ministerial Association, the Mendelssohn Club, Ulster County Grand Jurors Association, a member of the Metropolitan Baptist Church of Albany of which the Rev. J. B. Holmes is pastor, and a member of the United Sons of Georgia.

Surviving are his wife, Rosa Sims Haynes of this city; a nephew, Robert E. Smith of East Orange, N. J., and a cousin Lillian Haynes of New Rochelle.

Police Chief Says Force Hindered

Sullivan Said He Entered Frequent Reports on Vice Conditions

Hudson, July 29 (AP)—Police Chief John J. Sullivan has testified that he and other members of the force were at one time hindered by their superiors from cleaning up gambling and prostitution in the city.

Sullivan took the stand yesterday in the departmental trial of nine policemen suspended on charges of misconduct. He repudiated charges against the men contained in a complaint he had signed and testified in their defense.

Sullivan, who was promoted from sergeant to chief in 1950, said he had entered frequent reports on the police blotter concerning gambling and prostitution during the period from 1947 to 1950.

Under questioning by defense counsel N. Levan Haver, he testified that he had performed his duties as a police officer so far as he was permitted but felt that he and other members of the force were hindered by their superiors from cleaning up vice.

He did not identify the superiors.

Nevada Democrat Makes Accusation Attorney General Injects Politics

Washington, July 29 (AP)—Sen. McCarran (D-Nev.) said today Atty. Gen. Brownell has injected politics into national security and that this accounts in part for a lack of action on the administration's anti-subversive bills.

Most if not all of the other major parts of the administration program, leaders of both parties agreed, seem likely to pass in some form.

McCarran also said some of the anti-subversive measures submitted to Congress by the Justice Department "have been so loosely drawn that they rattle." He is a former chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and its Red-hunting Internal Security Subcommittee.

President Eisenhower yesterday urged passage of the anti-Communist measures before Congress adjourns, listing them along with farm, tax revision, social security, foreign aid and housing measures as major parts of his program.

More Than Disappointed

The President told his news conference he would be more than bitterly disappointed if Congress adjourned without passing them. Later in the day, a housing bill lacking some of the things he asked for cleared Congress.

Sens. Knowland (R-Calif.) and Ferguson (R-Mich.) today predicted passage within the next few days of most of the other bills Eisenhower listed.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, said this program is "moving along fast." Ferguson, head of the GOP policy committee, predicted its completion and adjournment of Congress by Aug. 7.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, said in a separate interview he thinks Congress will vote for most of the measures "although not necessarily in the exact form proposed by the President."

Says Boost Necessary

The President said also that an increase in the 275-billion-dollar debt limit is a necessity. The House passed a 15-billion-dollar hike last year but the Senate balked, and Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) and others still opposed any increase.

Ferguson said he was confident that a measure bearing "a reasonable facsimile" to the President's flexible farm price support program will pass in the final days of the session.

Knowland said that in addition to the bills named by the President he thinks Congress will pass some other important legislation.

One of those the President did not name in listing those still in front of the Senate, as he phrased it, is the bill to revise the atomic energy law. It passed the House Monday and the Senate Tuesday night after a two-week tussle which the White House termed a filibuster by opponents. Yesterday the House sent it to conference to resolve major differences in the two versions.

Could Adjourn Saturday

Except for some of the anti-subversive bills, none the President listed still remains to pass the House. Leaders there say they could adjourn Saturday, as originally planned, if the Senate were caught up.

Ferguson conceded that not all the anti-Communist bills recommended by Brownell will get through both Houses. Knowland predicted that one or two would get final approval.

So far, not a single one of about a dozen measures Brownell proposed has been enacted.

A controversial wiretap measure points up the cross currents.

Mayor Stevens was quoted as saying:

"If Poughkeepsie is to be side-tracked because of the authority's bridge building commitments, then I think the authority should let us know about it. In my opinion, we might as well notify the State Department of Public Works to stop making plans for an arterial highway through Poughkeepsie. We cannot afford to pay the full amount of the rights-of-way without the help we count upon from the bridge authority."

He added:

"If the authority is stymied now in its financing plans, that is not Poughkeepsie's fault. The assurances we received were such that the State Department of Public Works was satisfied to go ahead with plans for the arterial highway."

To Die of Heat

New York, July 29 (AP)—A man and a woman died of heat prostration last night on Staten Island, Assistant Medical Examiner Gertrude S. Wilber reported today. Mrs. Jennie Fence, 79, of Stapleton, was stricken in her home, and James Wayson, 56, of New Dorp Beach, collapsed while working in the back yard of his residence.

Cooler Weekend Forecast

New York, July 29 (AP)—New Yorkers got some cooling news today—a prediction of cooler weather for this weekend. The Weather Bureau said the mercury would go up to 85 or 90 again tomorrow, but that occasional showers were expected to develop and lower temperatures for the weekend.

Proposal Is Made Six Study 'Ism'

Senator Smith Offers Formal Resolution to Senate on Good, Evil of McCarthy

Washington, July 29 (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) proposed today that a committee of six senators be named to investigate and report on "the alleged good or evil of so-called McCarthyism."

Smith offered a formal resolution to the Senate.

This put it in position to be considered as a possible substitute for a motion of censure of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) being pressed by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) and due for consideration tomorrow.

Smith read his resolution to the Senate and served notice that he will offer it as a substitute when Flanders' resolution comes up.

Three of Each Party

Smith proposed that the committee consist of three Republicans, to be appointed by the Senate Republican Policy Committee, and three Democrats, to be appointed by the Senate Democratic Policy Committee. The group would be instructed to report to the Senate by Feb. 1 of next year.

Republican Leader Knowland (Calif.) told reporters that the Senate definitely will consider the Flanders resolution tomorrow.

Knowland refused to disclose his tactics although he had said earlier he would move to table the Flanders motion. Such a motion would cut off debate, if passed.

"It's an open question what will happen," Knowland said, adding that he, some other Republican or even some Democrat might make a motion.

McCarthy and Flanders were both absent from the floor when Smith introduced his resolution. Smith told the Senate he will "discuss this resolution at some length" when the issue is brought up for debate tomorrow.

Word of Resolution

Smith's resolution says:

"Whereas, the Senate views with real concern the growing divisiveness and disunity in the Senate and throughout the country over the alleged good or evil of so-called McCarthyism, and:

"Whereas, it is the immediate responsibility of the Senate to deal with this critical situation in an objective, judicial and statesmanlike manner;

"Now therefore be it resolved that the vice president of the United States immediately appoint a special bi-partisan committee of the Senate to investigate and report with recommendations to the Senate on this controversial matter. The committee shall be composed of six senators, three of whom shall be nominated by the Republican Policy Committee, and three by the Democratic Policy Committee. The vice president shall be ex officio chairman of the group. The committee shall report with recommendations to the Senate not later than February 1, 1955."

Top level Republicans and Democrats planned strategy meetings during the day on Flanders' move.

Casino Is Destroyed

Hulet's Landing, July 29 (AP)—Fire today leveled the casino of the Hulet Hotel in this Lake George resort community. The hotel, 300 feet from the two-story, frame building housing a bar, grill, game room and dance hall, was not damaged and no one was injured. The cause of the fire was not determined. Owner George Eichler said he could not estimate the loss immediately.

Rockfall at Niagara

A huge mountain of rock slips away from the lip of the cliff beside the American Falls, at Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 28, at peak of the rockfall which carried an estimated 185,000 tons of rock and earth into the 170-foot deep Niagara Gorge, changing the appearance of the cataract. Another section (left center) is about to fall.

$195,000 School Addition Plans Aired at Hurley.

and All-Purpose Room
Are Outlined
by Architect

Proposed plans for a $195,000 addition to the Hurley school were presented to the district's taxpayers and parents at an informal meeting in the school Wednesday evening.

M. Clifford Miller, president of the school board, presided at the meeting, which was attended by an estimated 75 persons.

Harry Halverson, architect, outlined his plans for the addition, which would contain kindergarten, three classrooms and an all-purpose room. It would be fireproof, with brick exterior to match the present structure, and would go on the east end of the building.

After discussion of the various points of the plan, a show of hands was called for by President Miller as a general indication of the opinion of those present, and a substantial majority indicated general approval of the plans as prepared by Halverson. The meeting was an informal meeting called to inform the voters of the project, and no official action was called for or taken.

President Miller said the estimated cost of the project would be approximately $195,000.

No Elaboration

McCarthy, who had no prepared address, did not elaborate. At one point McCarthy referred to Cohn as a "victim," then quickly said:

"But you can't call Roy a victim. He'll never be a victim of anything because he has too much good old Americanism and guts for that."

McCarthy also said Cohn will "always be available and will be called upon very often for help and advice."

Cohn's resignation followed the lengthy televised subcommittee hearing in which the Army charged that Cohn used improper pressure on behalf of G. David Schine, another sub-

Consultant's Post to Attorney

New York, July 29 (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) says Roy Cohn, a principal in the bitter army-McCarthy controversy, has declined an offer to serve as his personal consultant.

McCarthy spoke last night at a testimonial dinner for the 27-year-old Cohn, who recently resigned as chief counsel of the U. S. Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, which is headed by McCarthy.

"I asked Roy if he would serve on my personal office staff as my personal representative on the committee," McCarthy said. "Roy turned it down. He said it would be like going out the front door and coming in the back door."

Cohn, the senator added, "left me against my advice, but perhaps he was right in doing it. I could see why Roy felt his usefulness was not what it should be."

Throughout the day park officials had cast uneasy eyes on some widening fissures that snaked back onto Prospect Point from the river's edge about 40 feet above the brink of the falls.

The area was fenced off by workmen as engineers mapped plans to find out what was causing the break.

The entire drop took nearly 10 minutes. The crevices widened rapidly in the asphalt pavement and the lawn of the observation area.

Then the wire and iron fence appeared to settle before breaking up in huge pieces and crashed to the floor of the gorge.

Many Visitors Witness Plunge — Reported to Improve View of Cataract

Niagara Falls, July 29 (AP)—The face of the American Falls, its thundering beauty imprinted on the memories of millions of honeymooners, wore a new look today.

The change in the American portion of the great cataract took place yesterday with the collapse into the Niagara river gorge of an estimated 185,000 tons of rock. Carried from the top of the 170-foot chasm was most of the well-known observation area—Prospect Point—and a huge U-shaped chunk of the American Falls itself.

It was the largest break-off at the falls since Jan. 17, 1931, when a huge section of the American Falls tumbled onto the mist-shrouded rocks below.

Countless visitors witnessed yesterday's thundering fall, but no one was injured.

Size Is Estimated

Engineers for the Niagara Frontier State Parks Commission estimated the size of the rockfall as 400 feet long from the lip of the gorge, 50 feet wide, and 150 feet deep. An estimated 200 feet of the falls crest-line crashed to a point 70 feet down the face.

Throughout the day park officials had cast uneasy eyes on some widening fissures that snaked back onto Prospect Point from the river's edge about 40 feet above the brink of the falls.

Laborites Get Chance For Upset

Churchill Is in Position of Having to Depend on Opponents for Support

London, July 29 (AP)—A serious Conservative party rift over Britain's Suez Canal Zone Pact with Egypt handed the Laborites opposition a tempting chance today to force the resignation of Prime Minister Churchill. It was doubtful the Socialists would seize the chance.

The test comes in a House of Commons vote tonight on Churchill's motion demanding parliamentary approval of the agreement to pull Britain's 83,000 troops out of the strategic Canal Zone.

A group of 40 rebellious Conservatives, angered at seeing another bit of Britain's dwindling empire crumble away, have served notice they will vote against the government.

With only a nominal Conservative majority of 20 votes in the 625-member House, Churchill thus was in the uncomfortable position of having to depend on his Socialist opponents for the support necessary to put his policy across.

One of Several Troubles

The ticklish situation in Commons was one of several troubles currently plaguing the old warrior, who has yet shown no inclination to heed the urging of his wife and doctors that he retire.

In the House of Lords there was an almost unprecedented scene last night as Lord Reading, minister of state for foreign affairs, set forth the government's position in support of the Suez agreement. Angered Peers, who normally support the government, complained they had no time to study the pact. They became silent only after the House leader, Lord Salisbury, one of Churchill's closest advisers, withdrew the request for immediate approval of the agreements.

Churchill was harassed also by a cabinet shakeup following the resignation of two of his cabinet ministers. A third also announced he had submitted his resignation, but there was no indication whether it would be accepted.

Resigns as Secretary

In the cabinet shifting, Oliver Lyttelton resigned as Colonial Secretary and Sir Thomas Dugdale quit as Agriculture Minister. Atty. Gen. Sir Lionel Heath also asked to quit his post.

Transport Minister Alan Lennox-Boyd was moved up to Lyttelton's post and Derek Heathcoat Amory, minister of state of the Board of Trade, succeeded Dugdale.

Abroad, Greece served notice she would bring her demand for Cyprus before the United Nations despite Britain's decision to grant the colony a constitution that would advance it nearer to self-rule. The Churchill government served notice yesterday Britain plans to hold on to the fortress island in the Mediterranean, to which she plans to shift troops from the Suez.

Laborite members of Commons were thoroughly enjoying the Conservatives' dilemma but they kept their plans to themselves.

Most observers thought the Socialists could not vote Churchill out on the Suez issue without compromising their own principles. The official policy of the Labor party has long been in favor of pulling British troops out of the canal zone.

Skeleton in Ledge Pocket Reported That of Animal

A skeleton, which at first was believed to be that of a child, was found Wednesday evening in the Esopus creek near the Glenferrie falls where it had become lodged in a pool or pocket in the rocky ledges.

Mrs. Ruth Reis of 59 Fairmont avenue, Kingston, reported to state police at the Kingston station that she had observed the skeleton during the early evening. All flesh was gone but the bony skeleton, she said, resembled that of a human and appeared to be that of a child from five to ten years old.

When Mrs. Reis, who is a trained nurse, reported the skeleton Trooper Ryan was assigned to make an investigation. Coroner Francis J. McCordie was also notified and went to the scene with the trooper. After considerable difficulty in reaching the spot Coroner McCordie made an examination and arrived at the conclusion it was the skeleton of an animal. However he secured a number of the bones and took them to the Kingston Laboratory where an examination was made.

Later Dr. H. B. Adelman reported the bones were those of an animal, probably a dog. Further investigation and experiments will be made to determine, if possible, the kind of animal. It is assumed it was washed down the creek and during the present low water the carcass was isolated in the shallow pocket in the rock.

Executive Board Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Executive Board of the Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America was held Tuesday evening, at Camp Tri-Mount near East Jewett at which time the newest Eagle scout of the Council was presented to the board and he received his Eagle Badge and certificate. Explorer Joseph Biegen of Troop 47 sponsored by the Dutch Arms Club of the Catskill Reformed Church was the Eagle scout and his father Joseph Biegen, his Scoutmaster Charles W. Link, the council president Raymond S. Quackenbush of Saugerties and the scout executive, George V. Dennis all participated in the presentation ceremonies.

The eagle presentation took place after dinner served in the dining hall and then the board members toured camp under the guidance of the Camp Director Francis W. Teel who is also a field scout executive for the council. After the tour of camp the usual meeting was held in the dining hall with the council president, Raymond S. Quackenbush presiding.

The council organization and extension chairman George E. Matthews of Kingston reported that at the present time there are no lapsed units in the Council and that the membership of the Council has reached a new all-time high of 91 units serving 2,216 boys. He also announced that as a result of a meeting of his committee there are 15 new unit organizations in progress throughout the council area.

Leonard Herrick, chairman of the leadership training committee of the council reported on a recent meeting of his committee and announced that there will be two basic training courses for Cub leaders, one for scout leaders and two for Explorer leaders early this fall. The council commissioner, Val W. Morrow of Maplecrest reported that a very successful basic training course for commissioners has been held at Camp Tri-Mount last weekend and that the staff of commissioners have planned a series of staff meetings for the entire year.

The council camp chairman, Frank Bourke, of Kingston, announced that for the first three weeks of camp operations there have been 235 different boys in camp for a total of 283 boy-weeks. This is far in excess of last year. He also announced that there are openings in the last two weeks of camp starting August 1 and urged all board members to carry this word back to their units and communities. He also reported briefly on the recent visit and inspection of camp by the regional inspector announcing that the camp had received the highest rating possible on facilities, program and operations.

Gerald Overbaugh, chairman of the council finance committee, reported on a meeting of his committee called to ready the districts for the annual finance campaign to be conducted throughout the council area (Ulster and Greene counties) through the month of August. He stressed that if the goal of $20,585 is to be reached, every community in the area must be thoroughly covered. He reported that most districts have a good start toward this complete coverage which will insure success. Quackenbush, who also is serving in the capacity of campaign director in addition to being the council president also urged all districts to get solidly behind this united effort to provide the necessary funds to keep step with the growing membership and increased activities of the council.

The scout executive, George V. Dennis, in his summary and projection of council activities stressed the importance of having full district representation at operating committee meetings so complete plans including all districts could be made. He also complimented the camp committee on the splendid showing the camp is making this year and urged continued effort to bring better Scouting to more boys. He urged the executive board, as individuals as well as a group to cooperate fully in the annual finance campaign so none of the planned activities would have to be curtailed and so that the council could continue to expand and grow.

Delegation Is Sent

Montreal, July 29 (P)—Canada sent a five-man delegation flying toward New Delhi today to make arrangements for the Indo-China cease-fire commission with India and Poland, the supervisory group's other two members. The Canadian Foreign Office announced last night Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent's government had accepted the Geneva Conference's request that it serve on the commission. Canada was the last of the trio to agree.

Village to Disappear

Seoul, July 29 (P)—Freedom Village, the first stop for nearly 5,000 United Nations prisoners of war repatriated last year, soon will disappear from the Korean scene. The 8th Army yesterday ordered dismantling of the huge warehouse buildings used to process the 4,909 ex-POWs in the 33-day repatriation which started last August at Munsan. Salvaged construction materials will be used to build a supply warehouse a few miles away.

Ground-Breaking On Power Project Set for August 10

New York, July 29 (AP)—Ground-breaking for the 300-million-dollar St. Lawrence power project has been set for Aug. 10 by the New York State Power Authority.

The Authority and the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario will hold joint ceremonies.

A ceremony on the U. S. side will be held at 11 a. m. (EDT) near Massena, opposite Barnhart Island and the site of the Long Sault Dam. The ceremony on the Canadian side will be at 12:30 p. m. at Cornwall. A luncheon there will follow.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and state, federal and Canadian officials will participate in the ceremonies.

The program was announced after a closed meeting of the Authority yesterday. Its decisions were disclosed in a news release.

Authority Chairman Robert Moses said bids for the first major contract on the American side—for cofferdams for Long Sault Dam—will be taken Aug. 6. He added that a contract will be awarded "promptly."

Strengthens Position
Moses strengthened his position in the Authority yesterday as William Wilson, an architectural engineer and close friend of Moses, was elected vice chairman of the Authority.

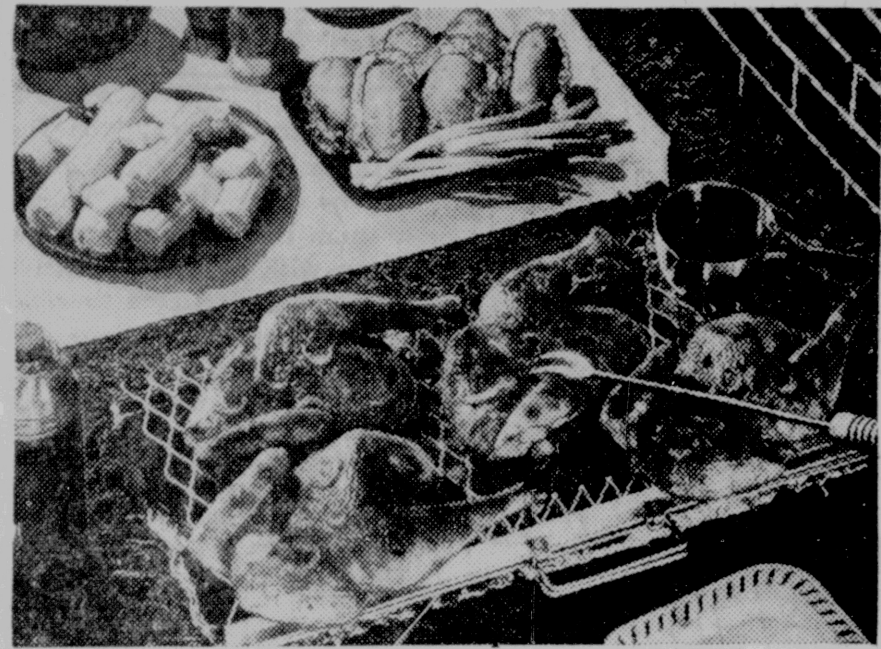

Wilson succeeds Hickman Powell, who resigned in a controversy within the Authority over Moses' methods. Dewey on Monday named the 73-year-old Wilson to succeed Powell as a $10,000-a-year member of the five-member Authority. By naming Wilson, Dewey, in effect, indicated he was backing Moses in the controversy. Moses had threatened to quit if he were not allowed to carry out his policies.

The Authority yesterday granted Thomas Moore, its general counsel, a pay increase from $20,000 to $22,000 a year.

This pay issue reportedly touched off the controversy between Moses and Powell. Powell and John E. Burton, who was forced out as chairman when Moses took over last March, had opposed the pay increase. Burton still is a member of the Authority. His term expires May 6, 1957.

Planning a Summer Party? Try This Barbecued Turkey

BARBECUED YOUNG TURKEY with baked potatoes and corn on the cob, is a feast for a hungry crowd.

For a hungry crowd who like to eat outdoors, why not barbecue small turkeys. They are amazingly delicious and not at all difficult to do. Our Chicago friend, Kathryn B. Niles, showed us how she does it and she is a turkey cooking expert.

With a simple barbecue set up, or 4 bricks, an oven rack and fuel for the fire, your picnic site can be wherever fancy finds you.

Slow cooking is necessary for good results, so keep the fire low. You don't need fancy food accompaniments either, corn and potatoes roasted in the fire, slices of melon and a favorite beverage should please everyone.

Choose a turkey 4 to 5 pounds ready-to-cook weight. Have it split in halves or quarters. If your favorite barbecue sauce is thick, thin it with water to "daubing" consistency.

When the fire has burned down to glowing embers, the turkey well-brushed with the sauce, should be placed on the grill skin side up. Cook without turning for 40 to 45 minutes. Baste several times with sauce. Turn skin side down and continue cooking, turning and basting occasionally, until the turkey halves are crusty brown and the drumstick when twisted separates readily from the thigh joint, about 45 minutes more.

It is well to plan additional barbecue sauce to serve with the turkey.

To enhance the flavor of broiled turkey, done indoors, Miss Niles gives these suggestions:

1. Rub favorite herbs or spices, cinnamon, ginger, marjoram, nutmeg, poultry seasoning, thyme, etc., into the surface before brushing with the fat.

2. Marinate turkey in barbecue sauce or French dressing 1 to 3 hours. Drain. Proceed to broil. The drained marinade may be used for basting.

3. Add 1 teaspoon sugar with salt and pepper for seasoning each half. Drizzle lemon juice over turkey during the broiling.

TOMORROW'S DINNER:

roasted in coals (wrapped in aluminum foil), corn on cob, butter or margarine, raw carrot sticks and scallions (top onions), buttered rolls, watermelon, coffee, tea, milk.

ABSENTEE BALLOT

If you expect to be out of the county on election day and fall within the qualifications prescribed for absentee voters you may secure an absentee ballot now from the Ulster County Board of Elections and at the same time register during central registration which will continue until September 10.

In the case of first voters you must be at least 21 on the day following election, must have been a resident of the state for one year, or your county for four months and of your election district for thirty days.

You must be registered in the district in which you reside.

Central registration is now going on at the board of elections on John street where application for absentee ballots may also be made. Proof of literacy of first voters regardless of residence will be given at that time.

Any person who will be out of the county on business election day may secure an absentee ballot. Also a student matriculated at or a teacher or professor at a school or college outside the county; a federal employee; a member of the armed forces, an inmate of a Veteran's Hospital or members of the family of one of the above who are accompanying such person, is also entitled to an absentee ballot.

Those in the military may make application to the Board of Elections either in person or by filling out a post card application for an absentee ballot until October 23, and after that by appearing in person at the office until October 30.

If you live in Kingston, where personal registration is required, you must register in person before each election and this may be done now during central registration or on the regular registration days. If you live elsewhere in the county your registration is permanent, unless you move or fail to vote for four consecutive years. In non-personal registration districts you need only to give your name to a party worker and he can register you. But it is wise to visit the polling place personally and make sure you are registered.

Anyone who is not sure as to the procedure for securing an absentee ballot or as to registration, will be given full information by visiting the Board of Elections office during the hours that office is open.

Time never stands still. And those who use it shouldn't either.

GREEDY GOVERNMENT

"From time immemorial, it has been an axiom of politics that all governments are greedy," says the Mercury of Medford, Massachusetts.

"In our own time, this greed of government has been most obvious in bureaucracy, where in the race to discover new things to do in order to justify their own growth and power, departments, bureaus and divisions of government have added thousands of people to the public pay roll and billions to the public budget to build the largest, most far-reaching and most unwieldy government establishment in the history of democratic regimes throughout the world."

We pay for this in something besides dollars. We pay in the coin of lost liberty and lost opportunity as well. Unless government greed is firmly checked, the end result is always some form of dictatorship.

PEEPING TOM

The Army Signal Corps has announced the development of a new camera which will prove extremely useful in our defense effort. It is a long range camera built around a 100 inch telephoto lens and under certain conditions it can take effective pictures up to 30 miles away. The camera's been nicknamed "Peeping Tom."

Commanders in the field are hampered if they do not know the strength of the enemy in front of them and the extent and type of the enemy's fortifications. For that reason aerial photographs are taken. But weather conditions sometimes make aerial photos impossible. Sometimes enemy ac-

SILVER CITY, NEW MEXICO

When we think of radical movements in this country, the big cities, New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and such places come to mind. It has seldom been that way. The Populist Movement, perhaps the most successful of radical efforts, came out of the Midwest, centering in Kansas; the "Appeal to Reason," the most potent of radical newspapers, was published in Girard, Kansas; the I.W.O., perhaps better remembered as the Wobblies, an anarcho-syndicalist movement, witnessed its greatest growth in the lumber camps of Oregon and Washington; Eugene V. Debs was born in Terre Haute, Indiana, and Earl Browder in Wichita, Kansas.

So now we turn to Silver City, Grant County, New Mexico, where the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers cuts a wide swath. This is a Communist union, expelled from the C.I.O. for being just that. In this mining center, the unskilled workers are completely dominated by this union.

It was in the environs of Silver City that the motion picture, "Salt of the Earth," was filmed, produced and directed by some who were affiliated with the Hollywood Ten. They could not work in Hollywood; so they established themselves in Silver City which annoyed the local Chamber of Commerce no end.

It so happens that more than 95 per cent of the unskilled labor in the Silver City mining industry are of Mexican descent. The Communists in the union and among the motion picture folks devoted themselves unceasingly to the jolly business of stirring up racial discontent. A quiet town suddenly found itself embroiled in much unpleasantness.

This year, the Chamber of Commerce, whose manager, Harold Welsh, used to be the editor of the "Silver City Enterprise," advocated that the town of July would be an excellent time for a city-wide reaffirmation of their belief in democracy. A committee was appointed which included interesting personalities, such as Greg Mesa, local president of the League of United Latin American Citizens, and Morris Rudick, local theatre manager who refused to let the "Salt of the Earth" producers use his theatre.

The event united the town. Among the speakers were Roy Brewer, the Hollywood labor leader and president of the Motion Picture Alliance; Archbishop Edwin V. Byrne of Santa Fe; and Pedro Gonzales-Gonzales, representing the Screen Actors Guild. Forty-three organizations joined in the parade, which had eight marshals, seven of whom were of Mexican nationality.

Roy Brewer, who is now running for the Presidency of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, said:

"Hollywood and Silver City have something in common today because both have been victimized by the American Communist Party. And while this experience has been an unpleasant one, I am sure that both of these communities will be better able to face the problems of the future by reason of the experiences through which we have passed. For there is nothing that the world today needs so much in this gigantic struggle for the very survival of our civilization as we need to understand the real nature of the Communist menace with which we are faced and those of us who have faced it in a realistic fashion, such as our two communities have, are going to have an advantage over the others in the struggles to come. . . . It is clearly evident that there are many good people who do not realize that American Communism can be as deadly as Asiatic or European Communism."

Ann Doran, of the Screen Actors Guild, made a little speech on this sound note:

" . . . This kind of gathering refutes the Communist line better than anything else. Their feeling is to divide, to make you look at your neighbor with suspicion and hate, but when we gather, just nice, normal average people, that work, that live, that have fried eggs for breakfast; when we gather like this, we are no longer—although we may be very proud of our ancestry—we are no longer Irish or Jewish, or French or Mexican. We're just plain old Apple Pie Americans."

So a good time was had by all at what seems to me to be the best kind of Fourth of July celebration I give this account rather belatedly in the hope that next year, other communities might try to make the Fourth fit the local scene as perfectly as this one did.

That Body of Yours

BLEEDING AND UNCONSCIOUSNESS

Yesterday we considered first aid in cases of fracture and dislocations. Today let us consider what we can do to help in bleeding and when a person becomes unconscious. It is understood, of course, that a doctor should be called at once but there are some things we can do in the meantime which may help to save life.

In bleeding, the point to think of is the stopping of the flow of blood as soon as possible, irrespective of whether it is from an artery or a vein. This is accomplished by placing the finger or a pad of any kind directly over the bleeding point. Elevate the bleeding part. Cold water or ice retards the bleeding. Warm water or warmth of any kind will increase the flow.

Bleeding from the nose is sometimes obstinate. The injection of cold or ice water into the nose, or application of cold water to the forehead or back of the neck are also useful. Bleeding from the lungs (bright red and frothy) is treated by having the patient rest quietly in bed. Bleeding from the stomach (dark red) is treated by rest in bed and swallowing small pieces of ice.

The treatment of unconsciousness depends upon its cause. Here are some of the commonest: Brain Concussion, Compression or Apoplexy: Lay the patient down, head slightly raised, loosen clothing, keep the head cool and feet warm. Keep quiet and do not give stimulants.

Intoxication: Give him something to make him vomit, such as mustard and water. If the skin is cold and the pulse feeble, apply heat and friction. Sunstroke: Lie down in the shade. Apply continuously ice or cold to the entire surface of the body. Ice pack behind ears and about head. Fainting: Lay the patient down with head lower than body—apply smelling salts to nose and sprinkle cold water on face.

Opium Poisoning (such as an overdose of sleeping pills): Empty stomach. Keep patient walking, slapping him with a towel. Keep him awake.

Lightning or Electric Shock: Treat as in resuscitation for the drowning; that is, begin artificial respiration.

First Aid

tion or lack of available planes precludes the securing of such pictures. In such instances the new camera will serve well.

The new camera won't win a war. But it might help to win an important battle for the fortunes of war sometimes hinge on attacking at just the right time and just the right place. It is reassuring to know that we are progressing in our development of scientific devices to assist us in our defense effort.

"Good Ol' Rain--No Picnickers Today!"

Edson's Washington News Notebook

BY PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington — (NEA) — A great effort to make an international issue out of what is now called "The Keefe Case" has been accompanied by considerable misunderstanding and misrepresentation. It could easily stand a large amount of clarification in the interest of public enlightenment.

In the first place, it isn't the Keefe case at all. It should properly be called the Keefe-Scaletti case. But Keefe is a good Irish name around which patriots can rally. Scaletti, being of Italian derivation, is the forgotten man in the affair. No group of patriots has taken up his cause as yet, though he is in much the same pickle as his buddy Keefe.

Richard T. Keefe and Anthony Scaletti are two U. S. Army privates who were stationed in France. Army records reveal that Private Keefe, 26, of Riverdale, Md., has a record of six courts-martial. After confinement in a U. S. guardhouse following his last conviction, Private Keefe was assigned to a base near Orleans, France.

There he met up with Pvt. Scaletti. After drinking considerable liquor one night last year, according to the Army record, the two soldiers got in a taxicab driven by a 65-year-old Frenchman.

After a time the two soldiers choked the Frenchman, pulled him out of his cab, beat him up and left him at the side of the road in a serious condition. He was laid up for 30 days.

These details are usually not mentioned by Private Keefe's defenders, who are now rather numerous. The Defenders of the American Constitution — whose President is retired Marine Lt. Gen. Pedro A. Del Valle, a fabulous World War 2 hero himself—have taken up his cause and are collecting money for his defense.

Their version of the affair, as published in their news letter, "Task Force," is that the two G.I.'s "went out for a celebration, got a skin full, and decided to take a joy ride. They swiped a French taxicab and pushed off for Paris." It was all just a boyish prank.

Anyway, there is agreement on all sides that the two soldiers were arrested in Paris by French police. The two were charged with theft and violence. And then the story began to take on international complications.

Under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Status of Forces agreement — approved by President Eisenhower, Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., Secretary of Defense, C. E. Wilson, Generals Bradley, Ridgway and Gruenther, Admirals Radford, McCormick and Carney and duly ratified by a 72-to-15 vote in the U. S. Senate on July 15, 1953—American troops stationed in Europe may be tried in the courts of any NATO country for violations of its laws committed off a military post.

Thus if a G.I. commits a crime in camp, he is tried by a court-martial. If he is off duty and commits a crime while on a pass, he may be arrested and tried by civilian authorities, the same as any citizen of the country.

Private Keefe and Scaletti, tried by a French court, plead guilty. It is admitted on all sides they had a friendly judge. He sentenced them to five years, the minimum under French law. The men were given solitary confinement. Keefe's defenders represent this as being excessive punishment. Solitary confinement under French law, however, means that they have private cells and are not in a bull pen. They were not given hard labor and they have the usual prison exercise liberties. Under French law, they could have been given life imprisonment in a penal colony.

That's what much of the shouting is about—not what the two soldiers got, but what they could have been given under "treaty law."

The drive is on to get the NATO Status of Forces agreement repealed to have American military criminals tried only by American courts, and to make France release Keefe and Scaletti. If enough fuss is raised, this last might be accomplished. There is one hardship angle to the case in that Keefe's young wife is left with two children. When her husband was convicted, the army cut off his pay and family allowances of $136.90 a month.

This might have happened even if he had been tried by an American judge or court-martial. Mrs. Keefe has sued for release of her husband on a writ of habeas corpus. A U. S. Court of Appeals decision is pending.

So They Say..

I don't think there is going to be any United States withdrawal from the United Nations or any occasion for it.

—Secretary of State Dulles.

I do not think we ought to trade with the Communist countries until there is some indication on their part that they are not deadly enemies.

Adm. Arthur Radford.

Nothing will help communism more than the break-up of allied coalition and the driving of the United States into isolation.

—Adlai Stevenson.

Prospect for Action

Washington, July 29 (AP)—Sen. Carlson (R-Kan.) said today he still believes there is a good prospect for action by Congress on a pay raise for the half a million postal workers and a million civil service employees. Carlson heads the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee which last week approved a 5 per cent pay raise for both groups. The measure may be sent to the floor today. There it will have to take its chances along with many other bills in the end-of-the session rush.

Troops Sneak Ashore

Okinawa, July 29 (AP)—Marine reconnaissance troops sneaked ashore here two days before a recent scheduled maneuver and "captured" the intelligence officer of an army outfit—but the umpires made them give him back. The army officer protested that the "war" hadn't started. The chief umpire agreed. The marines rowed back out to the fleet.

Jet engines make so much noise that special electronic equipment must be used because the loud sounds often cause failures of ordinary types of such equipment.

Perhaps Democrats Gave Nation Argument for Electing Republicans to Both Houses

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, July 29—Maybe the Democrats in the Senate have, by their 13-day "filibuster," unwittingly furnished the country with a very persuasive argument for electing a Republican majority in both Houses of Congress next autumn. For the "filibuster" will be pointed out as an example of "obstructionism" and how the next two years can produce legislative chaos if the Democrats gain control of Congress.

Until just a few weeks ago, in recognition of the political and personal popularity of President Eisenhower, the Democrats in Congress were boasting that they were doing more to secure the passage of the main items in the Eisenhower legislative program than were the members of his own party. But now, when it becomes apparent that the Republicans are showing unity as the major issues come to final votes in the closing days of the session, there is a change of tactics. The tax bill passed the House by enough Republican votes, irrespective of any Democratic aid.

Whatever their reasons for deciding to spend 13 days in obstructing public business, the Democrats—and it appears to have been a concerted move—gave unintentionally some valuable ammunition to the Republican stump speakers.

Thus, at a time when matters have reached a critical stage throughout the world and important appropriation bills containing measures of military and economic aid were held up by the 13-day filibuster, the delay was dramatically emphasized before the whole country.

The Republican spokesmen will ask the voters to decide whether they can expect the Democrats to "cooperate" or to "obstruct," and they will point to the "filibuster" as a glaring example of party irresponsibility.

President Eisenhower expects to make a number of speeches in behalf of the Republican party before the autumn congressional elections take place. His whole effort will be aimed at getting a vote of confidence from the American people. If they want his leadership continued and if they want the kind of administration for which such a precedent was set in 1952, will they get it by electing Democrats next autumn who will be committed to follow the party strategy of doing everything possible to obstruct the legislative program of the President and to wreck the administration?

Before the 13-day "filibuster," such an argument might have been regarded as the usual theme of a congressional campaign in the middle of an administration. But after the "filibuster" and the tactics used to prevent the passage of important bills, the country will not need much convincing that extreme partisanship still holds sway in the minority party and that two years of frustration lie ahead if the President's party is not given a majority at the polls.

Some of the Republicans have themselves done a great deal of harm to the President's program by diversionary measures but not one of them can be justly convicted of having actually held up public business, as did the 13-day "filibuster." What is important is that the Democratic party did not accidentally take the course that was recently followed but decided on it in a deliberate way after conferences among the party members.

Wrapped up in the "filibuster" question, of course, is the attitude of southern Democrats who see in that technique the only way to keep from being passed a flood of legislation applying the non-segregation principle to a lot of problems, from public housing to government contracts, and other laws to which provisions objectionable to the south could be attached. If these ever come to a vote, there's a majority to adopt them and hence the southern Democrats feel they have a vested right, so to speak, in keeping the "filibustering" technique uncurbed.

But some of the Republican party have not been inclined to press such questions in deference to some of their southern colleagues who were voting with them on basic issues of conservatism versus radicalism. But the south lately has been sending to Congress some radicals who do not vote with the northern conservatives, and there is a tendency now among northern Republicans to feel that the time may have come to force a strict cloture rule through the Senate so as to prohibit unlimited debate.

The southern Democrats and the northern Republicans have operated a conservative coalition for many years but the attitude of some of the southerners seems to have been changing, especially toward the government-ownership side. So the Republicans in the northern states will have a much more penetrating issue on the subject of party responsibility than they have had before if they begin to take up the unlimited debate rule which the Democrats by concerted action have frankly utilized to try to block legislation.

Few issues are as easy to explain to the voters as the one that says a majority shall rule and a minority shall not obstruct. And the big issue could be, whether the Democrats should be given an opportunity to control Congress and to bring on more of the kind of irresponsible government which the 13-day "filibuster" so vividly illustrated.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, July 28—Frederick Woltman's serial blast at Senator Joe McCarthy in the New York World-Telegram and Sun has drawn from Mrs. William Loeb, the granddaughter of old E. W. Scripps, who founded the Scripps-Howard chain, a reply which nobody on Scripps-Howard is likely to tie up with ribbon and lay away in lavender.

Mrs. Loeb's name is Nackey. Her husband is the son of that William Loeb who was secretary to President Theodore Roosevelt. Bill and Nackey run a chain of papers in New Hampshire and Vermont but live in Reno, Nev., and do their editing by phone and telegraph. This process is not much different from the administration of any metropolitan paper in the downtown area from an uptown ivory tower by the same means of communication.

The bull of their little herd is the Manchester Union-Leader, which was Frank Knox's paper. In his last years the bull of Frank's herd was the Chicago Daily News. He was the secretary of the navy who said "the navy is ready" a few days before Pearl Harbor.

Nackey is a spirited character as, indeed, all the Scripps kids have been for a couple of generations, always feuding and a-fussing and going to law, and she sent no aid and/or comfort to Roy Howard in this particular episode because Fred Woltman came to the paper as Howard's boy after a row at the University of Pittsburgh in consequence of which Woltman was, as he put it to me, "dismissed as a graduate assistant in philosophy." A student club invited Harry Elmer Barnes to speak and Woltman, as "faculty adviser," got involved when the club was ordered not to hold the meeting on university property and held it anyway on a vacant lot. Woltman says he never was accused of being a Communist with the allowance, however, that "I may have been accused by individuals."

The story in the Manchester Union-Leader, the biggest paper in the state and one of the most belligerent anti-Communist anti-double-dome papers in the country, said Nackey "bitterly assailed what she termed the Scripps-Howard smearing of Senator McCarthy."

"Nackey Scripps Loeb," the story continued, "wired her brother, Charles, and Jack R. Howard, president of the Scripps-Howard chain, that the current feature articles on McCarthy running in all the Scripps papers from coast to coast were 'giving aid and comfort to our enemies, the Russians.'"

"Mrs. Loeb termed the articles written by Frederick Woltman, 'rotten, biased journalism which would make my grandfather, who above all stood for integrity and fair play in the handling of news, turn in his grave in disgust and shame.'"

Scripps' granddaughter, with her five brothers and sisters, is one of the six life beneficiaries under the will of E. W. Scripps, whose entire estate passes to the great-grandchildren on the death of the last grandchild. Mrs. Loeb also asked her brother who had converted Woltman to socialism, and what methods were used. She said two years ago Woltman spent almost an entire evening praising McCarthy, his methods and what he stood for to her and her husband.

"For many months now, the Scripps-Howard papers," asserted Mrs. Loeb, "have been carrying on a vicious campaign through slanted news reports and editorials to discredit Senator McCarthy. To top this off, they now run the Woltman series for the hypocritical purpose of pretending to show why McCarthy is hurting the anti-Communist cause. If that were true, why do the Daily Worker and all the Communists in the country seem to have as their main objective the muzzling and destruction of McCarthy?"

"Mrs. Loeb pointed out to Charles Scripps and Jack Howard that while complete management, control and full responsibility for editorial policy rests on them and Roy W. Howard, former president of the concern, 'My name of Scripps is on the mast-head of every Scripps-Howard paper and I want to make it clear beyond the slightest doubt that I abominate and loathe your anti-McCarthy stab in the back.'"

"Furthermore, as one of the six life beneficiaries of the E. W. Scripps trust and as a representative of a remainderman, I predict to you that when you abandon the standards of newspaper integrity set up by our grandfather, you do jeopardize the financial future of the Scripps newspapers. American people are not fools and they are just about fed up with slanted newspapers whose publishers do not know when they are being influenced by Communist advisers."

Nackey did not name as Communists any advisers of Charlie and Jack, but Woltman won't do because he is not an "adviser" (Continued on Page 5, Col. 8)

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Beef and lamb look like your best bets for meat value in the nation's food stores this week-end.

Chuck roast again will be a favorite in the beef line, but you may also find specials on round roast, beef liver and chopped beef. However, few stores list prime ribs or steaks among their weekend specials.

Legs of lamb will be cheaper in many stores, and the price of lamb chops will be down as well. A few markets will drop pork chop prices by a couple of cents a pound.

Legs and rumps of veal will be on sale in a fairly large number of outlets. Here and there stores will feature pork loin roast, small turkeys, fryers, fowl, sliced bacon and frankfurters.

Specials in seafood will be limited pretty much to two items—swordfish and shrimp.

Eggs Are Higher

Eggs, which went up last week, will be a couple of cents a dozen higher this weekend in many stores. Butter again shows little price change.

Your best buys in vegetables this weekend will be among those grown locally. And the list is quite long: Beans, cucumbers, lettuce, tomatoes, celery, cabbage, peppers, onions, potatoes, radishes, and eggplant. In some areas, cauliflower is available from nearby sources.

Most food stores will be featuring cantaloupes, honeydew melons and Elberta peaches this weekend. Produce specialists agree that cantaloupes and honeydews are about as cheap as they'll get this season.

The No. 1 buy in fruits, according to these specialists, is the lime. There are a great many of them and they are not moving too well. That means low prices.

Once again, cherries, plums, apricots and nectarines edged up in price. Most citrus fruits also went higher during the week.

Produce markets report more Bartlett pears arriving from west coast orchards, with prices down somewhat.

Coffee-Drinking Off

Coffee-drinking is off because of high prices, but no one seems to know for sure just how much. However, one chain says its coffee sales are down 10 to 15 per cent from a year ago and another discloses that it is selling 25 per cent less coffee than in 1953. If this sort of thing continues, market men say, retail coffee prices could come down.

If you're a bride without much knowledge of cooking, take heart, David Deerson, president of the National Association of Retail Food and Meat Dealers, says you'll make out fine so long as you can read and tell time.

"Everything for a good dinner—choice fresh meats, vegetables and desserts—are available in packages now," he told the association's meeting in Chicago. "On them are directions for cooking and instruction on how many can be served."

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON

Taxes are uppermost in the public mind. General Eisenhower is attempting to reduce taxes and balance the budget—but it seems an impossible job within time limits.

Mr. Hutton

The Sixteenth Amendment was adopted in 1913. Graduated taxes were not mentioned in the Income Tax Amendment. That idea came when politicians took a plank from the Communist platform advocating graduated taxes.

Beginning at the county level and continuing into the towns, cities, States and Federal Government—we have one Government employee for every 18 people in the United States.

If we could pass a law compelling every Bureaucrat to wear a high silk hat—it would be good for the hat business, too—we could then see how many people we have given authority to look after us as "good angels." If we actually saw this "silk hat"

Persistence through the centuries of the idea that Government can take care of you better than you can, accounts for six and a half million "silk hats."

If we could but see the guys with the silk hats, it would shock the American people.

"We, the people," are feeding them, with what we can save, to maintain "guardian angels" for our happiness, comfort and protection. Better get wise to the padding of the payrolls!

Neighbor, would you like to see the silk hats?

Stevens Orders 'Highest Priority' Candidate Check

Washington, July 29 (AP)—Secretary of the Army Stevens has ordered a "highest priority," top-level check before a person can get an army commission as an officer or a warrant officer.

The order, effective July 1, and made public last night, is aimed at barring security risks from officer ranks and doing away with such cases as that in which former Maj. Irving Peress was promoted while under investigation.

The directive calls for an FBI check and also checks with other government agencies on applicants for commissions.

Peress, a New York dentist, was drafted under procedures which normally award commissions to doctors and dentists taken in under the Selective Service Law. He was promoted from captain to major, and honorably discharged while the army investigated his refusal to say, on constitutional grounds, whether he was a member of a subversive organization. His was an off-mentioned name in the dispute between Stevens and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and their aides.

The new order does not apply to civilians or enlisted men, who must get clearance only when they have access to classified information.

6,584 Licenses Revoked

Albany, July 28 (AP)—The licenses of 6,584 drivers were revoked and those of 79,770 suspended during the first six months of 1954. State Motor Vehicle Bureau Commissioner James R. Macduff, who announced the figures yesterday, compared them with the 4,955 revocations and 73,728 suspensions during the same period last year.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, July 29—Callers in this area Tuesday included Prof. Alexander Winchell, formerly head of the geology and mineralogy department at University of Wisconsin, and his wife, Dr. Florence Sylvester Winchell, physician and author. They were accompanied by their son, Horace, instructor of mineralogy at Yale University, whose wife was Jean Howland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howland of Rose Hill, Shandaken. The trio engaged in gathering data for a new edition of the Winchell family genealogy, covering descendants of the Robert Winchell who settled at Dorchester, near Boston, in 1630. Prof. Alexander Winchell, resident consultant for American Cyanamide Co. for three years, has lectured for one year each at Columbia and University of Virginia since leaving Wisconsin. Dr. Florence Winchell is author of the book, "Three 'Incarnations,'" based on the life of her father, Alonzo H. Sylvester, who was the first American dentist in Berlin had among his patients, Emperor William II, his family and court.

The annual fair and supper of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Shokan Reformed Church this year will take place Wednesday afternoon and evening, Aug. 4, at the church. A ham and turkey supper will be served beginning at 5:30 o'clock.

Members of the Leon Hunter family are at their summer home near the C. G. Fuller place along the Ontario Trail.

Margaret Riccobono, Bloomington antiques dealer, was a caller in the village center Tuesday.

There was quite a flurry of excitement around the corner store about 7:30 Tuesday morning following a collision of a pickup truck and a sedan in which a woman passenger suffered slight injuries and some damage was done to the cars. The incident was remarkable for the comparatively large official turnout which followed the crash, there being among those present: three members of the Olive town board, several members of the New York City reservoir police force, Constable George McNamara and, of course, the faithful and efficient Cpl. Ray Dunn of the state police.

The Ella Ganter residence on the old state road is reported sold to members of the Ashcroft family. The small farm before the waterworks was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Britt, parents of Mrs. Ganter, who with her son, Emmett, has resided in Poughkeepsie the past several years.

The cauliflower crop has begun moving down the trail from the big growing center up around Bovina, Delaware county. L. Wallace Blanchard of Middietown was numbered among recent callers in Shokan.

Mrs. Edward Strzewski, the former Edna Swenson of Long Island, recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Swenson, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Thord Fredenholm of Albany are spending a few days at their place here.

W. Ivanhoff, Boiceville hill road contractor, has the new John Haggerty house in the west end nearly completed. The building, reportedly for sale was erected on the lot which Jack bought of James Allen of New Jersey who acquired the land many years ago from the David Windrum estate.

William Stevens of Shokan Lodge, IOOF, has received word of the death recently of Daniel Crispell, 91, at Westover Hills, near Richmond, Va. The one time resident of Shokan, a retired contractor, has been an Odd Fellow more than 65 years. He is survived by his wife, Margaret, and a daughter, Maude Tolker of Richmond.

Ferris Whittemore and family are residing in the Mt. Tremper area where Ferris is employed by Beechford Farms.

but just a somewhat specialized handyman. Although Woltman does know his way around the Marxist slums he never has been regarded as an authentic bolo himself. Moreover, Fred just doesn't write well enough to swing any weight and everyone who knew the present slant of Scripps-However knew what to expect when the announcement was made that he was going to survey Joe and his work.

As to the "slant" of news reports on McCarthy, a flagrant case was a story about a boycott against Wisconsin cheese by anti-McCarthy people which did not mention a single name. The story of a guy in Wisconsin who was running a Joe-must-go campaign and accepting contributions was slanted and artificially kept going but it died out and harmed only the papers which whopped it up.

Nackey sent a copy of her telegram down to a friend on the New York News which ran an editorial: jabbing Scripps-Howard. When I telephoned Loeb he promptly sent me the same data and more to boot.

Of course this is a family row but when the sugar bowl flies through the window and cries of "You're another" reach the neighbors, the fun is unconfined. (Copyright, 1954, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Mr. Whatley, a traveling man, was a very light sleeper. One night, he was obliged to stop at a small hotel, and after much tossing about he finally succeeded in getting into a sound sleep. In answer to loud, repeated knocks on his door he nervously sat up in bed.

Mr. Whatley—What's wanted? (grumbling).

Boy—Package down stairs for you, sir.

Mr. Whatley—Well, let it stay there; it can wait till morning I suppose.

The boy shuffled down the corridor, and after a long time the guest fell into a sound sleep again. Then another knock came at the door.

Whatley—Well, what's up now?

Boy—Taint for you, that package!

Barber—And how would you like your hair cut, sir?

Customer—Off.

Barber—Yes, I know. But what style?

Customer—First tell me your prices.

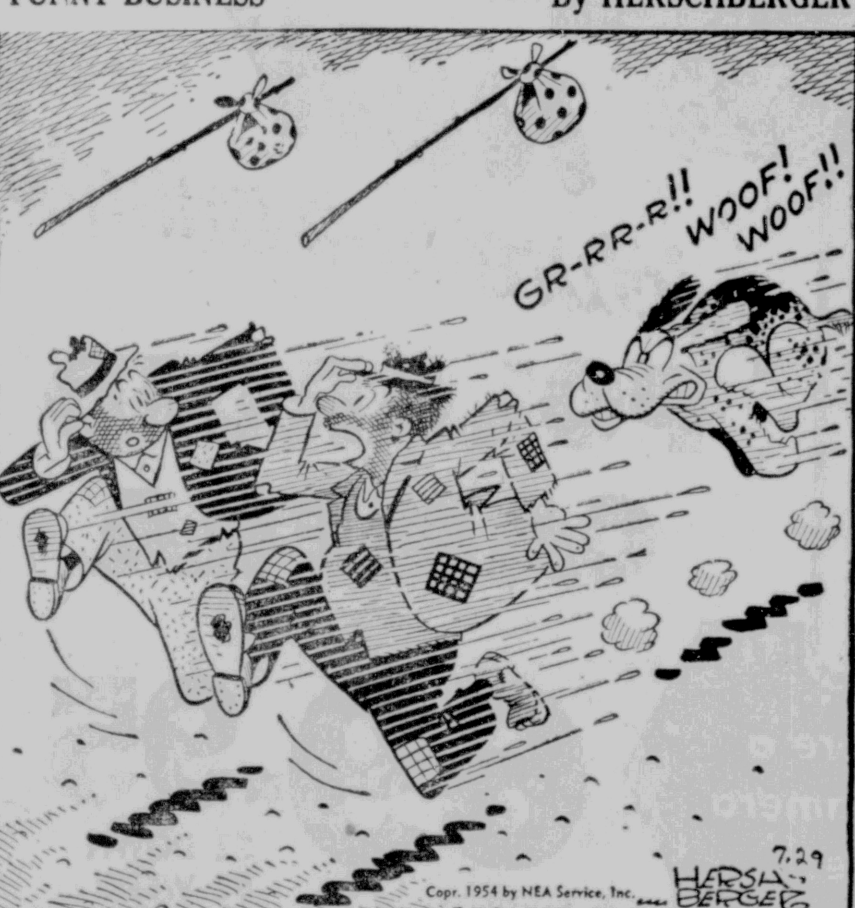

Barber—Haircut is 75 cents, shave 35 cents.

Customer—Well, shave my hair off.

Three Papers Say Dewey Favorite

(By The Associated Press)

Three upstate newspapers report that a joint straw poll of readers shows Gov. Dewey as the favorite among all possible candidates—in both parties—in the forthcoming gubernatorial election.

And results of the survey, announced last night by the Syracuse Post-Standard, Buffalo Courier-Express and Albany Times-Union, indicate participants favor Dewey in any contest against Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., or Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York city, both Democrats.

The newspapers launched the 10-day poll on July 18, asking readers to select their top choice for governor and to indicate also how they would vote in each of four possible gubernatorial contests.

Dewey led the individual balloting with 1,869 votes, almost triple the vote of the runner-up, Roosevelt, who had 638. James A. Farley, was third with 430.

Others included: U. S. Sen. Irving M. Ives, Norwich Republican, 368; Wagner, 141, and Roy M. Cohn, former chief counsel to the McCarthy investigation committee, 40.

The Mature Parent

Give Children the Chance To Correct Own Mistakes

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

One afternoon 13-year-old Kay was sent to the grocery by her mother. The shopping list included three packages of lemon gelatin, but they weren't in the paper bag she brought home.

"Where's the gelatin?" asked her mother.

"Isn't it in the bag?" countered Kay. "Then I guess Mr. Mark forgot to put it in, Mother."

"Did you forget to check what he put in the bag against your list?" her mother asked.

Kay didn't answer that question. Instead, she said irritably, "O.K. O.K. What do you want me to do?"

"What I want you to do about a mistake is not important," said her mother. "What you want to do about it is."

After a minute, Kay went out again. When she returned with the gelatin, she wasn't nearly so grumpy as you would imagine. "Well, there's your aspic salad," she said, throwing the bag to her mother.

Catching it, her mother smiled. "Yes, here with a daughter I love very much," she said.

Kay flushed with pleasure. "I did forget to check the list," she said. "Shopping for eggs and stuff bores me."

Could we note that admission of her mistake came voluntarily? Like you and me, she found it easy to acknowledge it when she was given her own power to correct it.

Once, an old lady who is dear to me, said this: "I very much doubt whether we should ever point out other people's mistakes to them unless we endow them with the power to correct them."

If we could keep this in mind, we would find correction of childhood easier. It's because we so often forget to draw on their capacity to correct themselves that children develop great resentment at criticism.

We want mistakes put right, quick—one, two, three. So we take over their correction. We say, "Go right back to the store and get me that gelatin." Or we say, "Honestly, I don't know where your head is. All right, just get out of my kitchen."

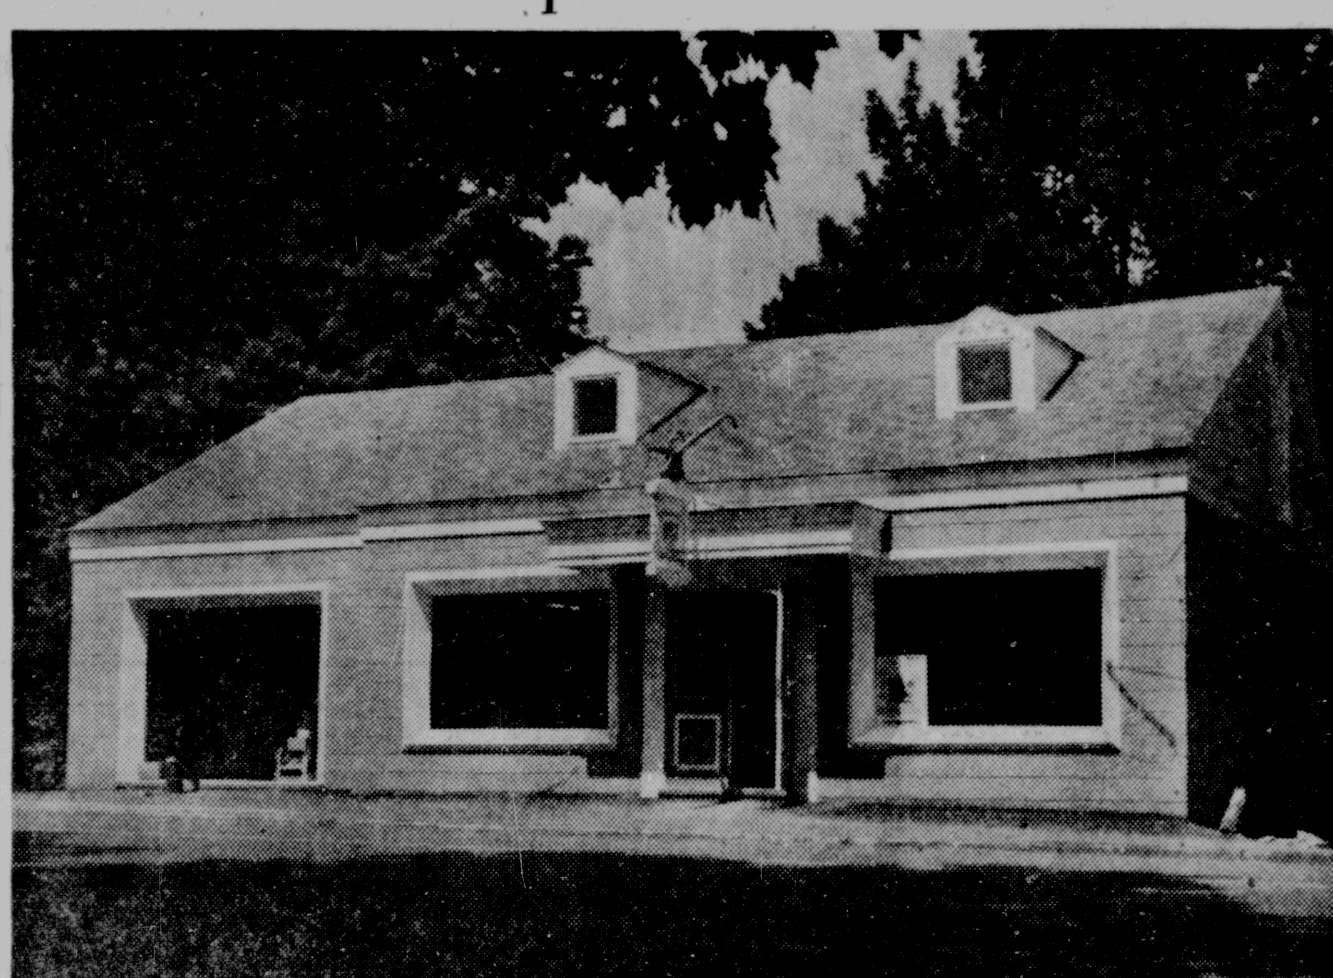

Whether our child gets gelatin or gets out of the kitchen, she leaves us with a feeling of loss. The self-respect that belongs to her as the solver of her own problem has been stolen from her.

She leaves us sullenly, struggling with our suggestion that she is a careless, disappointing person.

And since this fear will look like angry defiance to us, we will think, "Dear oh, dear, will someone tell me what to do with this girl who can't take criticism?"

Three to Attend Session on Crime And Delinquency

Andrew J. Murphy, 3rd, local superintendent of recreation, Patrolman Thomas W. Tomshaw, and City Clerk Bernhardt S. Kramer will attend the Frederick A. Moran Memorial Institute on Delinquency and Crime at St. Lawrence University at Canton Aug. 15 through 21, it was announced today.

The three had attended the session last year for basic training in juvenile delinquency prevention, and will receive advanced training this year.

Officer Tomshaw is one of 90 law-enforcement officers scheduled to attend the institute. City Clerk Kramer represents the mayor's office at the sessions.

List of Instructors
Courses for law enforcement officers will be taught by Captain Henry Mulhern of the New York city police department; Dr. James J. Brennan, former lieutenant in the New York city police department; Dr. Paul Tappan, chairman of the federal parole board; and Judge Clarence H. Briscoe of Steuben county children's court.

The several courses offered especially for police will present in simple concrete terms the best principles, practices and procedures for police to follow to prevent and curb juvenile delinquency. Emphasis will be on the methods of handling juvenile cases that will make police contacts with children and youth beneficial. Robert P. Capes, executive secretary of the commission said.

Cohn Refuses Job

committee aide who had been drafted.
The McCarthy side contended the Army was using Schine as a "hostage" to prevent the subcommittee from pursuing its probe of subversives in the Army.

Ovations Received
Both McCarthy and Cohn received extended ovations from some 2,000 $7-a-plate dinner guests in the Hotel Astor ballroom. Sponsors of the affair said more than 6,000 ticket applications had to be turned down because of lack of space.

Cohn, responding to many addresses of praise, said he considered himself "extremely fortunate to have had the opportunity to oppose the Communist menace."

"In public life or private life, as long as I am here, I will always be in this fight," he said, adding:

"The elimination of one or two or five or ten individuals will not stop this fight, but it will go on as long as there is an America. And it will continue as long as you continue your interest in public affairs and dedication to God and country."

Special Measures Taken
Police took special security measures as the result of reported threats against some of those attending the dinner.

Outside the hotel, about 250 persons demonstrated against the dinner, carrying signs and chanting:
"Roy Is Out—Joe Must Go."

One of the marchers told an inquiring policeman they represented the "Union Youth League." The group was not further identified.

The dinner was sponsored by the joint committee against communism in New York.

Organizations presenting testimonials to Cohn included the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Jewish War Veterans, Catholic War Veterans, the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Sons of the American Revolution and the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs.

Archibald Roosevelt, son of the late President Theodore Roosevelt and a co-chairman of the dinner, criticized the New York Times and the New York Herald Tribune.

Roosevelt said that he could tell by reading these newspapers what new anti-Communist figures had been marked for elimination by smearing.

Boos and hisses from part of the audience followed mention of these newspapers and of the columnists, Joseph and Stewart Alsop, who write for the Herald Tribune.

One Section Stands
One section of the point which had a mature tree growing on it was left standing, but engineers said it would have to be blasted away if it didn't fall of its own weight.

A. M. Anderson, chief engineer and executive secretary of the commission, said his immediate reaction was that the change would result in improved appearance of the falls.

Visitors now will be able to get a head-on view of the American falls because of the deep "V" carved in its flank. Prior to yesterday, the only "head-on" view of the American falls was from the Canadian side, thousands of feet away across the gorge.

Treasure Hunt Is Held by Pirates

Hidden Treasure, made slightly more difficult to find because a puppy dog chewed one of the key clues, was the object of searching parties of "pirates."

Wednesday evening at the VFW Home, 552 Delaware avenue, as the cub scouts of Pack 19 enjoyed the monthly pack meeting.

The monthly theme of "Treasures" was presented through the medium of skits by the three dens and ended on a gay note with the cubs searching throughout the grounds of the VFW home for "clues" tacked to various objects. At the end of the treasure hunt trail the cubs discovered "treasures" for all cubs in the form of candy, but before they attained the goal, the puppy dog had his fun to the consternation of the "pirates."

Den 3, Lillian Rittie den mother; Ronald Rittie, silver arrow; Richard Showers, silver arrow.

Schedule of Visits

Stang; and the combination pack meeting-picnic for August 25 at Lawton Park with the families and cub scouts of VFW Pack 130 of Saugerties joining with the local cubs and families. Announcements from the pack committee to the assembly revealed that a subscription to Boy's Life magazine, official publication of the Boy Scouts of America, will be placed in the home of every cub scout of Pack 19, and that a project of gifts for veterans in the Castle Point Hospital will be added to the annual agenda of the pack. The annual planning meeting of the pack committee is scheduled for August and the cooperation of the parents in planning the various monthly themes for the entire year was solicited.

The meeting was closed with the serving of refreshments by Den 3, under the direction of Den Mother Lillian Rittie.

McCarren . . .

swirling around the program. A bill approved by the House has been bottled up in committee in the Senate.

Weeks ago the House passed a bill to permit evidence obtained by wiretapping to be used in the prosecution of national security cases if the wiretaps were court-ordered. Brownell has urged that the attorney general be empowered to authorize such wiretapping.

A Senate judiciary subcommittee approved the wiretap measure asked by Brownell, 3-2, but no action has been taken by the full committee.

McCarren said, "I don't think there will be any wiretap bill." Sen. Langer (R-N.D.), McCarren's successor as committee chairman, said he too is opposed to the bill but declined to predict its fate.

McCarren said he did not believe a majority of the committee would vote to permit wiretapping "at the discretion of any political officer" such as the attorney general.

A similar controversy is involved over a bill to grant immunity from federal prosecution to witnesses in return for testimony which they could otherwise refuse to give under the constitutional protection against self-incrimination.

Sergeant Cleared By Dix Board

Fl. Dix, N. J., July 29 (AP)—A wiry, one-eyed non-commissioned officer with six years of army service behind him yesterday was cleared of charges that he kept 225 recruits at boned-out attention for an hour in 92-degree heat.

Sgt. L. C. Richard J. Witbeck, 24, of Wellington, Ohio, breathed a sigh of relief as a three-man, special court-martial board of three of his superior officers acquitted him after deliberating 40 minutes.

"I feel very good," Witbeck said outside the pine-paneled hearing room. "I'm glad it's all over."

Slates Wiped Clean

The verdict thus wiped clean the slates of the two principals up on charges as a result of the June 21 punishment formation during which men were said to have passed out in the boiling sun, been revived with pails of water and forced back into line.

1st Lt. Robert S. Morgan, 28, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Witbeck's immediate superior and commander of Company "L," 272 Infantry Regiment, which stood the formation, was cleared of "dereliction of duty" charges last Friday.

Pleaded Innocent

Witbeck, who wears a patch over his left eye, lost in a training mishap while on occupation duty in Austria, pleaded innocent to allegations of maltreatment of personnel through his counsel.

The acting first sergeant, a black-haired, angular-faced man with a wispy mustache, did not take the stand in his own defense and did not exercise his right to have other enlisted men sit on the court.

His counsel, Capt. Norman Tupper of Winter Park, Fla., contended that Witbeck merely acted on orders of his superiors.

Tupper made light of the trainees' ordeal of standing at attention, saying, "I've done it many times. . . I've seen men passing out all around me."

Legion to Hear Adenauer

Bonn, Germany, July 29 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will fly to the United States next month to address the national convention of the American Legion Aug. 30 in Washington. "His visit will be of short duration," the government said today. It is considered certain, however, that the German leader will confer with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles. The chancellor is scheduled to visit the United States in October also to receive an honorary degree from Columbia University in New York.

Ulster Wheat Loan Rate $2.40

The Commodity Credit Corporation loan rate for Grade No. 1 wheat grown in Ulster county and harvested in 1954 is $2.40, according to John S. Geary, chairman of the Ulster County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The announced rate is four cents above the preliminary rate announced last fall in advance of winter wheat planting.

Nationally, the announced support rate average is four cents a bushel above the minimum support of $2.20 announced in the fall. Last year's national average support was $2.21.

Geary explained that wheat growers of the county may take advantage of the price support program by putting their wheat under loan or by taking out a purchase agreement. Both are based on 90 per cent of parity for the grade and quality of wheat. Loans and purchase agreements will be available from the time the wheat is harvested through January 31, 1955.

To be eligible for price support, the grower must be in compliance with his 1954 wheat acreage allotment and be eligible to receive a wheat marketing card on all farms in the county in which he has an interest in the wheat crop. Further information is available at the Ulster County ASC Office, 54 John street, Kingston.

From White to Black

Hereford, England, July 29 (AP)—Baffled Mrs. Amelia Reese said yesterday one of her White Wyandotte hens is turning jet black for the second time in two years. Mrs. Reese said the hen stayed black for a month the first time and then slowly resumed her usual snowy plumage. She calls the feathered chameleon "Mrs. Piebald."

Finnish-Style Bath

Waukegan, Ill. (AP)—To the Steve Hutnick, there's nothing like a hot bath to keep cool. It's an old story to Finns who like steam baths. Mrs. Hutnick invites neighbor women to use the Finnish-style bath with her on hot days. It is built of cement blocks, covered with knotty pine, tarted to prevent rot. A wood-burning stove is covered with smooth-round stones. The steam bath reclines on a bench. With a dipper he pours cold water on the hot stones to create steam. After a switching with a bunch of twigs and a cold shower, the bath devotee emerges cooled and refreshed.

Unemployment Is Lower in State

New York, July 29 (P)—State Industrial Commissioner Edward Corsi says unemployment in New York state, in terms of jobless insurance benefit claims, dropped sharply last week to a new low for this year.

Corsi's job report, disclosed yesterday, covered the week ended last Friday and shows that job insurance benefit claims fell to 304,000—a drop of nine per cent from the previous week's total of 333,400.

Last week's figure marks a decline of 2,000 from the year's previous low of 306,000 on Jan. 1.

The decrease in unemployment insurance claims for the corresponding week of 1953 was five per cent.

Labor Department officials noted that a seasonal upsurge in employment in New York state was normal at this time of year, but they also said that reports from employment offices throughout the state indicated a "genuine movement" to hire workers.

The report said plant reopenings after summer shutdowns also helped to improve the statewide job picture.

Cited in particular was the seasonal reopening of canning centers near Rochester.

New York city showed the sharpest decline in unemployment claims, with the total falling from 214,900 to 192,500 largely responsible for this, the report said, was a quickening needle trades employment as production for the fall season got underway.

The report added that exhaustion of insurance benefits was not a significant factor in last week's improvement.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

The other day R. Matthews brought a good photo postal card of the tugboat Rob bringing in the body of Governor George Clinton to Rondout. There were many flags and people at the dock. From time to time the question arises, how and when Governor Clinton's body was brought to Kingston. Going back into the records of old newspapers such as Kingston Weekly Freeman of June 4, 1908 there is a sketch given of the ship Wasp which brought the body. The Naval Reserve Ship, Wasp, was escorted by a fleet of fighting ships and sailed up the Hudson river on Friday, May 29, 1908. That afternoon it anchored off Kingston Point. Aboard the Wasp was the casket containing the body of Governor Clinton, first governor of the State of New York. The following day it was interred, with appropriate ceremonies in the yard of the First Dutch Reformed Church on Main street in uptown Kingston.

The fleet which escorted the Wasp was composed of the dispatch boat, Scorpion, the torpedo boats Porter, DeLong, Thorton and Tingey, the dispatch boat, Hist and submarines Cuttlefish and Viper. The Wasp was met off Esopus light by a local committee in charge of Kingston's Hudson-Fulton celebration that year: S. D. Coykendall, Judge A. T. Clearwater, Mayor Walter P. Crane, William S. Green, Herbert Carl, DuBois G. Atkins, Harry Coykendall, Judge Severn B. Sharpe, Admiral Francis J. Higginson and Commander W. H. Webb. They were on the tugboat, Rob, which followed the Wasp and its escort to the point of anchorage off Kingston Point. Impressive ceremonies marked the reburial of Governor Clinton here on Saturday, May 30, 1908. The body in its casket was removed from the Wasp and placed aboard tug Rob, and brought into the Rondout creek. The casket was escorted by a guard of honor, composed of eight sergeants from the U. S. Army Post at Fort Hamilton. The casket was placed on a cassion, and the impressive funeral cortege moved up Broadway through the streets of Kingston then to its last resting place, the church yard of the old Dutch Church. The casket was accompanied by Co. M with Capt. Everett Fowler, commanding and acting as a military escort.

As those who remember, rain fell so speaking exercises had to be held in the court house instead of at the church grounds. Services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. G. Van Slyke, pastor of the historic old church. The eulogy was delivered at the court house by former Governor David B. Hill, who was introduced by Benjamin Brink, secretary of the local committee. It is said that the selection of the First Dutch Reformed Church yard was considered most appropriate as 52 Revolutionary soldiers were buried there. The monument that now marks the spot where Gov. Clinton lies buried was removed from the Congressional Cemetery in Washington, D. C. and brought to Kingston. The above information was of course gathered by reporters of this paper who were eye-witnesses at the entire ceremony. In 1958 it will be exactly a half a century that the above ceremony took place so perhaps something will be arranged for May, 1958.

Wins Second Place

Denver, July 29 (P)—Norman Greenwald of Rego Park, N. Y., won second place and Kenneth Trotter of Elmont, N. Y., third in novice men's singles in the American amateur roller skating championships yesterday.

Chamber Advises
On Unwritten
Contract Deals

Because of the large number of calls received recently at the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce office regarding various solicitations and promotional schemes the following statement was issued today:

The Chamber of Commerce is a member of the National Better Business Bureau and receives frequent reports about various schemes most of which are carefully devised, to make substantial profits for the promoter. Claims and promises are made which local, taxpaying businessmen would not dare make and face the public after the deal is consummated.

Numerous warnings have been issued in the past and in some cases contracts were canceled after legal advice was obtained.

Calls Invited

The Chamber of Commerce invites calls about any promotions. If definite information is not on file, every effort will be made to get accurate information. In many cases verbal promises and agreements are made which are not a specific part of the contract. In such cases the out-of-town bank which discounts the note has no knowledge of such agreements and such verbal agreements have little bearing on the fulfillment of the contractual obligations of the purchaser. It is suggested that all claims and prices be verified and checked. Cost estimates are freely given by local businessmen. If commissions are promised on similar jobs, ask for the names of persons who have been paid such commissions.

The schemes vary widely and cover many lines of business. The chamber recommends extreme caution in dealing with representatives of out-of-town firms. Adjustments and repairs are extremely difficult to obtain in many such instances.

Need Is Stressed
For Probation
Help and Office

Probation work in Ulster county continues to increase in effectiveness, according to the annual report of Chief Probation Officer Edmund U. Burhans which has been filed with the Ulster County Board of Supervisors for the past year.

Again in his report he calls attention to the need of additional facilities for the work, including an office where interviews may be made in private rather than in the outer office of the county judge. Need for an additional probation worker is also pointed out. Such a worker has been authorized by the board of supervisors but it has been impossible to secure such a worker with the qualifications demanded by Civil Service who is willing to take the position under the present salary schedule.

Report on Collections

During the year 1953 there was a total of $82,497.83 collected through the department, an increase over the $75,191.81 which was collected during the year 1952. Of this amount collected in 1953, $2,020.36 was for restitution, $1,538 in special funds and $78,939.47 toward family support. The special fund is that received for physically handicapped children from parents.

Probation Officer Burhans notes that "it is believed that a large percentage of these monies, had they not been collected by the probation officer, would have necessarily been disbursed by the County Welfare Department in the form of public assistance. It also aids the morale of the dependents to feel that they are not a burden on the taxpayers."

During the year probation was revoked for three male adults, one being committed to Clinton State Prison, one to the Ulster county jail and one to the Ohio Reformatory for a new offense.

86 Cases Listed

At the beginning of the year there were 53 probation cases continued from 1952 and during 1953 there were 30 additional cases received in addition to three transferred from other courts for a total of 86. Of these 54 were males, three women charged with misdemeanors and 28 males and one female charged with felonies. During the year 26 passed from probation and nine cases were transferred to other courts, leaving a total of 51 cases at the close of the year, a drop of two cases from the 1952 case load.

Unlawful entry was the prevailing offense in probation cases involving misdemeanors with a total of five, motor vehicle law offenses were next with two assault was offense in one instance and defendants coming under the youthful offender statute accounted for 10 cases. All other offenses totaled four cases.

Probation in felony cases involved two sex offenses, two grand larceny, one burglary, one assault, one for arson and one for perjury.

In the case of six boys probation was revoked and all were committed to the State Agricultural and Industrial School at Industry.

46 Minors Report

Cases coming before the probation department from Children's Court numbered 32 during 1953, with 51 being continued over from 1952. During the year 26 passed from probation leaving 57 on probation at the close of the year. Of these 42 were boys and four were girls and 11 adult men.

Burglary and unlawful entry leads the list of offenses for which minors appear in court. These cases numbered 20, all boys. Automobile stealing was second with six boys involved while other offenses accounted for four cases. Ungovernable charges by parents accounted for one case and the only charge involving a girl was one of sex offense.

In his report Probation Officer Burhans asks again that offices for private interviews be provided.

Robert Post, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Post of 202 Fair street has been promoted to supply sergeant with the First Marine Division in Korea, according to an announcement received by his parents. A former employee of Rudolph's Jewelers here, he enlisted October 7, 1952, through the recruiting station at central post office, and while at school on Parris Island, S. C., studied marine corps supply methods.

time with her grandmother, Mrs. Louise Van DeMark.

Mrs. Mae Keester of Ellenville is visiting Mrs. Phoebe Lawrence this week.

Nancy Palmer of Ellenville, who has been spending two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Palmer, returned home Friday.

Police Chief Says

went to Carl H. Klein, then mayor, and asked for permission to stage vice raids.

Klein, he said, told him to wait, that state police were going to clean up Hudson "once and for all."

In June 1950, about 50 troopers raided houses of prostitution on Columbia street, at that time a flourishing red light district. They arrested 17 women on charges of being common prostitutes and four on charges of operating bawdy houses.

Klein could not be reached for comment on Sullivan's testimony.

The police chief said in response to further question that the charges against the nine policemen were prepared by another person—who he did not identify—and given to him to sign.

The nine are Sgts. Frederick Finck and William Egan, and Patrolmen William Fitzgerald, Arthur Finch, Lawrence McDonald, William Spanburg, Lloyd Hart, Joseph Patera and Joseph Harkinson.

Conspiracy Charged

They are charged with conspiring and agreeing among themselves to aid, abet and assist gamblers, bookmakers and operators of houses of prostitution from 1947 to sometime in 1950.

Sullivan testified that the patrolmen, to his knowledge, had done nothing that would represent misconduct. But, under cross-examination by Corporation Counsel Charles G. Alonge, he said that he could not know what the men were doing when not in his sight.

Sullivan was not called by the prosecution, which rested its case earlier yesterday.

Klein, a Democrat, became mayor in 1949.

Beethoven for Japan

Tokyo (AP)—The Japanese love Beethoven. The Tokyo Metropolitan Theatre asked its 6,674 subscribers to send in their favorites for a series of request programs. It was Beethoven's Seventh symphony, Beethoven's Fifth and Beethoven's Sixth in one, two, three order.

Junk Is Valuable

Saginaw, Mich. (AP)—Tommie Almond paid $853 for a year's salvage rights at the city dump. Almond owns four trucks and has a crew of six men working for him. He says the best money maker at the dump is scrap metal. It brings about $12 a ton. Old newspapers follow at about $7 a ton. Magazines sell for about 50 cents per 100 pounds. A salvage operator has one outstanding problem, he says—persons who believe that anything at the dump is free for the taking. Almond sometimes tangles with people on that score but wins out when his identity is established.

Scientists estimate that if there were no control programs insects would destroy half of U. S. farm production.

In 1940 it required 47 man hours to produce 100 bushels of wheat on American farms. Now it requires 31 hours.

THE RUMINATOR

By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

A Column of Contrary Opinion

By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

The Ruminator is not going to get into a discussion of the give-up in Indochina, because you have read about it in a dozen editorials and columns no doubt. In the final analysis, it was France's decision to make. Nevertheless, it is the first in the row of falling dominoes, to which the President referred some weeks ago.

Within a matter of months (or sooner) the free world will be faced with other similar decisions to make. In the meantime, the United States will have another new look at our defenses in order to cope with the gradual encirclement by the Reds.

It is not a pretty picture to look at, but contrarily the momentary stoppage of shooting wars may have interesting repercussions from an economic viewpoint.

It has been a fact, in our financial history, contrary to what most people take for granted, that most of our speculative spree have occurred during peace times, not while this country was actually engaged in war. The outstanding exception, which should be mentioned at once, was the stock market speculation during the Civil War. (This is a story in itself, as those will agree who have been good enough to read the Ruminator's history of the stock exchange speculation).

Without thinking, one might say "oh, you've forgotten the big 'war babies' boom in the stock market during the first World War." But, this speculative spree occurred before the United States got into the war. Indeed, there was a bear market during all of 1917 (when we finally were drawn in) when prices made a complete downward swing of the cycle, losing practically all of the gains of the "war-babies boom" of 1915-1916. (The top of the boom was in November, 1916, the low of the bear market in December, 1917).

It is interesting to add that during 1918 prices fluctuated quietly and moderately, prior to sailing upward in the 1919 post-war inflationary binge. There was no speculative excesses noted in the stock market during World War 2, you probably recall. Prices, dropped when we were attacked at Pearl Harbor, gradually climbed out of the hole, commencing in April, 1942, and this was followed by a long two-year (1943-1944) "sidewise movement" as reflected in average fluctuations. The speculation did not make headlines until late 1945 and early 1946 (after the war).

Other speculative eras had no reference to wars but were caused by economic developments. Mention might be made of the railroad boom, culminating in the bitter depression of the early 1870's; and also of the "trust booms" of 1901 and 1903.

There have been many other speculative sprees in our financial history—some having to do with bank notes, some with land, some with commodities, some with gold mining. The great Florida speculation of the mid-1920's is a conspicuous example of a mass mania over land.

What the Ruminator is leading up to is that speculation, to catch on among the general public, seems to require minds freed from worries and fear.

It has seemed to me for some months (ever since the end of the Korean war) that there was a possibility of speculation again becoming pronounced. This has been this writer's contrary view to those who were preaching slump fears. The expectancy of a recession was uppermost in people's minds until recently. It was only six months ago—in January and February—when everyone was worked up over the forecasts by Colin Clark, of Oxford, that the U. S. faced an economic collapse of major magnitude unless the government immediately "inflated" by spending at least 25 billion on public works, etc. That appears (in retrospect) to have been the top of the slump-fear cycle—while it also marked the low of the minor recession.

Speculation is now becoming noticeable in the stock market (and in such other specialized fields, such as uranium mining).

In sum, now that minds and nerves are (temporarily) free from war worries it is conceivable that the contrary observer that we shall witness another one of those periods when people attempt to get rich-quick in the most difficult game known; namely, speculation. As the contagion grows, caution disappears. It will be interesting to watch to see what happens now that there is no shooting war to worry about and now that the general opinion has swung full circle to the thought that there can't be any slump.

Dinner Cloths

When shopping for your best damask dinner cloth, or cloths, allow for an overhang of 12 inches all around. And remember, as a background for lovely patterned china, choose table linen that's inconspicuous in design.

Troubled Conscience

Tulare, Calif. (AP)—A gold medalion of the Order of the Eastern Star was returned by mail to Mrs. Roberta Eaton 20 years after her purse was stolen. "Apparently someone's conscience bothered him for 20 years," commented Police Chief Virgil Kelly.

Political mudslinging was literal in ancient Rome says the National Geographic Society; the candidates wore white togas and people threw mud at them when they were unpopular.

Many local people attended the annual convention and parade of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association, held last weekend in New Paltz.

A complete report has been received from the Rev. John E. Swords of the Vacation Bible School during July in the Modena Methodist Church. The theme was Our Church. The kindergarten class was in charge of Gail Grimm, Nancy Black and Eileen Coy. They made churches out of blocks, and a worship center of blocks and clay. They read stories of Jesus, when he was a little boy; learned new songs, Bible verses and a new blessing. They enjoyed marching, playing rhythm instruments—playing and finger painting.

The lower primary class was in charge of Eleanor Gruman. In carrying out the study of the church, they drew pictures of the church, made a scrap book containing pictures of churches and their furnishings. They also enjoyed finger painting, coloring, stories, songs and recreational periods. The Upper Primary class was in charge of Mrs. John E. Swords. They studied "Our Church" and interviewed Joseph E. Hasbrouck about the history of the Modena Church. They read about a tent church, made a play of it and made a picture

Cat Is Books' Hero

Calso multimillion-dollar "Platformer" boosts octane

In 1952, anticipating the octane needs of today's high-compression engines and the still higher needs of tomorrow's engines, Calso began building a "Platformer." This Platinum Reformer is now complete and "on stream" at the modern refinery at Perth Amboy, New Jersey. Both Calso Supreme and Calso Gasoline have been boosted to a new high in octane to give you full anti-knock protection... full power for the car you drive.

WHAT HIGHER-OCTANE CALSO GASOLINES MEAN TO YOUR CAR

In a modern high-compression 4-cycle engine the pistons in the cylinders go through 4 distinct operations:

By increasing the pressure exerted by the piston in the compression stroke, manufacturers have steadily increased your car's power.

But, this high-compression ratio is wasted without high-octane gasolines. Octane rating is the antiknock measure of gasoline. The lower the octane, the more the fuel mixture detonates during the compression stroke, before the piston reaches its top, peak power position. This results in engine "knock," power waste and overheating of the motor. Higher-octane Calso Gasolines protect your car against these troubles.

Calso's new "Detergent-Action" Gasolines end forever the biggest single cause of engine troubles... carburetor deposits caused by oil-laden vapors, soot, dust and exhaust from other cars... remove them while you drive. You'll be safe from carburetor deposits and their symptoms... "traffic" stalling and rough idling. You'll get money-saving gas mileage... enjoy all-round new-car performance!

Try "Detergent-Action" Calso with new high octane—you'll never go back to old-fashioned gasolines!

"Detergent-Action" Calso Gasolines available at the big red Calso sign from Maine to Virginia.

District Governor At Rotary Club

Rotary District Governor George W. Bagley made his annual official visit to the Kingston Rotary Club Wednesday at which time he discussed the local service club's participation in the fiftieth anniversary celebration of Rotary International from February 23 to June 2, 1955.

He explained that the two-fold purpose of the observance was to fully inform club members of the history, ideals and program of Rotary and also to inform the general public about activities of the local club in carrying out the world-wide program of Rotary.

He exhorted the members to work closely with the Golden Anniversary Committee.

The district governor complimented the club on its complete records.

District Governor Bagley is the first district governor of the newly formed 256th district in the Hudson Valley region of eastern New York. There are 27 clubs in the district with a total membership of 1,375.

President James G. Connelly welcomed the governor to the Kingston club.

Experts disagree as to why crickets sing, explanations varying from mating call to battle cry—or just self expression.

Huge Sewage Plant

Pittsburgh, Pa. (AP)—Pittsburgh and 63 neighboring communities plan a sewage disposal plant costing 70 million dollars. The project, designed to help clean up the Ohio River, includes 63 miles of sewers, several pump stations and a treatment plant with a daily capacity of 150 million gallons. It is to be finished by 1958.

Stewart Base Wins Award for Safety

Stewart AFB, Newburgh, July 29—Stewart Air Force Base has become one of four units throughout the Eastern Air Defense Force to receive the "Award of Merit" from the National Safety Council in recognition of their outstanding achievements in the field of ground safety during the past year.

Concurrently, the Stewart Ground Safety Office announced plans for a "Crusade Against Accidents" to be implemented command-wide during the month of August in an effort to better the 1953 safety standing, outstanding as it was.

The units had to meet criteria which normally would have won them an "Award of Honor," highest award given by the National Safety Council. But, because of limitations on the numbers of "Award of Honor" presentations, were given the lesser degree.

Committee Is Sent

Walla Walla, Wash., July 29 (AP)—Some 1,400 hungry but still rebellious convicts today sent a grievance committee to a negotiating session which a state official said could end the state penitentiary's four-day-old shutdown strike. Fred Dickson, supervisor of state institutions, scheduled a meeting with a committee of 61 convicts to hear the convicts' explanations of the "passive resistance" move and their proposals to end it. For some of the prisoners it was the fourth day without food. The strike started among prisoners in the laundry Monday noon and had spread to the entire prison population by Tuesday night. Dickson said no meals will be served until a settlement is reached.

Traffic Deaths Down 6 Per Cent

Chicago, July 29 (AP)—Traffic deaths are down six per cent from last year for the first six months of 1954, the National Safety Council said today. The council said 16,300 had died in traffic accidents in the first six months of this year. In 1953, 17,250 died during the same period.

Ned H. Dearborn, council president, sounded a note of warning, however, pointing out the last half of the year is normally the most hazardous and accounts for the greatest proportions of deaths.

"We can only hope that this continuing improvement is not a flash in the pan," he said.

June was the sixth consecutive month to record fewer traffic deaths than the corresponding month of 1953. The June reduction was eight per cent—significant in the council's opinion because it reflected the first of the heavy vacation travel.

The actual toll for June was 2,850, the lowest death total for any June since 1950. There 3,100 fatalities in June last year. Percentages of decrease for the first six months of 1954 included Connecticut 15, New Jersey 10, New York 8 and Pennsylvania 3.

Special Order Out On Surplus Deer

Albany, July 29 (AP)—The Conservation Department has set up a special program that will permit up to 7,000 hunters to take antlerless deer this year from two areas deep in the Adirondacks.

Commissioner Perry B. Duryea yesterday signed an order establishing a system of special licenses for hunting in 600 square miles of wilderness harboring surplus deer.

The program, he said, was designed to trim herds swelled by a series of mild winters to beyond the feeding capacity of the two areas. If sportsmen do not harvest the surplus, he said, the deer would starve next winter.

Areas Named
Up to 4,000 of the special licenses will be issued for hunting in the region of the Oswegatchie and Beaver rivers and in the area of West Canada Creek and the south branch of the Moose river.

Hunters will have to hold regular big-game or archery licenses in order to be eligible for a special permit. The special permit will entitle the holder to take one antlerless deer, in addition to the usual quota of one buck under the regular license. Hunters will be required to check in at a control station for each of the two areas and to do their shooting at least three miles from any state, county or town road.

The season on antlerless deer will run concurrently with the regular season, Oct. 25 through Nov. 30.

24 Are Indicted

New York, July 29 (AP)—Seventeen lawyers and seven other persons have been indicted in connection with an alleged ambulance-chasing ring described as operating with "supermarket efficiency." In addition, a grand jury preferred contempt charges against three others, one of whom is a lawyer. Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said the ring had a "network blanketing the whole city" which included "outside operators" who roamed the city seeking promising accident cases. Hogan said the outfit also employed "hospital tippers" such as nurses, orderlies and ambulance drivers who got $20 to $50 for each "tip" and $50 to $100 for each report that developed as a retainer.

Billion Is Spent

Harrisburg, Pa., July 29 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction estimated today a billion dollars will have been spent on school construction by 1960 to meet estimated enrollment needs. In a special report on a survey of Pennsylvania Public School facilities, Dr. Francis P. Haas, superintendent of public instruction, said there will be 2,071,000 children in school in 1960 compared to a million and a half in 1942. The increase will mean 12,000 more teachers must be added to the present 64,000 now in the system.

Wagner Asks Support

New York, July 29 (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner, addressing a police chief's convention dinner last night, urged greater public support of police in fighting juvenile delinquency. The mayor spoke at a dinner of the 54th annual conference of the New York State Assn. of Chiefs of Police. Six hundred police officers from 200 communities of the state are attending the three-day meeting which ends today. Wagner said the average policeman is frustrated when he finds "inadequate support in coping with juvenile delinquency."

Has One-Cent Contract

Mineola, July 29 (AP)—Al Davis has himself a contract for one cent he's going to excavate 50,000 yards of earth to form a sump—a huge hole in the ground where runoff water is collected and returned to the soil. The Nassau County Board of Supervisors, which had asked bids on the excavation at nearby Levittown, had been ready to go as high as $25,000. Naturally, the board was delighted by Davis' penny bid but asked "how come?" Replied Davis: "Where else can a guy get yards of high grade soil, sand and gravel for a penny?"

Legion Convention Opens

New York, July 29 (AP)—The 36th annual New York state convention of the American Legion opens today with an address by Adm. Jerald Wright, Atlantic Fleet commander-in-chief. Some 40,000 persons gathered for the three-day meeting, which will be highlighted by election of officers to head the state's 230,000 legionnaires in 1954-55. In addition to business sessions, the convention program includes drum corps and band competitions, a Forty-and-Eight parade today and the annual Legion parade tomorrow, both down Fifth avenue.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT

Ulster Cancer Unit To Meet August 16

The fiscal year of the New York State Division, American Cancer Society, ends on August 31 each year, therefore Ulster County Branch will hold its annual meeting Monday, Aug. 16, at 2:30 p. m., in the Kingston Laboratory in anticipation of that date, according to Andrew S. Hickey, chairman of publicity for the local unit.

The purpose of the meeting will be to elect directors whose terms expire Aug. 31, all of whom have served for a period of three years. A nominating committee was appointed by Walter Seaman, president of Ulster County Branch, of which Miss Katherine Murphy is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd LeFever and Dr. Dudley Hargrave, commissioner of health of Ulster county, all from Kingston.

The directors whose terms expire are Dr. Joseph Jacobson, Dr. Kenneth LeFever, Mrs. Harry P. Van Wageningen, Eugene Carey, Dr. F. W. Holcomb Sr., Dr. Edward Shea, Herman G. Rafalowsky, Mrs. A. J. Snyder, Richard M. Kalish, Dr. John R. Roberts, Dr. B. J. Dutto, Oscar V. Newkirk, Mrs. Robert R. Rodie, Robert M. Peebles, Dr. William S. Bush, Lloyd R. LeFever and Oscar J. Lawatsch.

All those who contributed at least one dollar to the Cancer Campaign of 1954 are members of Ulster County Branch and are cordially invited to attend this meeting. It is expected that this will be a most interesting meeting since several members of the State Division of the American Cancer Society will be present. Refreshments will be served.

Chou Has Party With Russians

Moscow, July 29 (AP)—The Kremlin chiefs uncorked their choicest vodka last night to honor Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai and Vietnamese Deputy Premier Pham Van Dong, triumphantly touring homeward from the Geneva Conference.

Toasts by the dozen to peace and coexistence were hoisted at a gala reception given by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov for about 1,000 persons, including western diplomats and newsmen.

The get-friendly theme was pitched mainly at British Ambassador Sir William Hayter, who sat at the head table with the guests of honor and top Russian officials.

In a jovial moment toward the end of the party, Soviet Communist party secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev raised his glass to the British diplomat. "You British don't want to capture Leningrad," Khrushchev said, "and we don't want to take Glasgow."

"Leningrad is a very nice town, prettier than Glasgow," Hayter smilingly replied.

U. S. Embassy officials passed up their invitation to the big Spridanovka house reception. It arrived just a few hours before the party started. The Americans wouldn't have gone anyway, because the United States does not recognize Chou's Peiping regime.

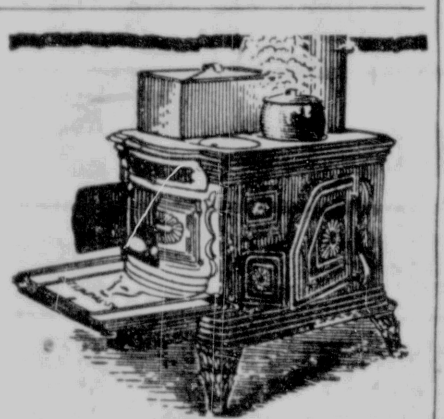

Serving Scallops

Frying scallops to serve with French-fried potatoes, tartar sauce and cole slaw? If the scallops are large, cut each one in half. Roll the scallops in a mixture of beaten egg and a little milk, then in fine dry bread crumbs before frying golden-brown in deep fat.

Grating Rind

Orange and lemon rind benefit from being grated on a grater that has holes about a quarter inch apart. If you grate the rind on a fine grater you'll have a soggy unappetizing-looking result.

When you are planning to serve steamed hard-shell clams, it is a good idea to allow at least two dozen clams per person.

Say good-bye to old-fashioned laundry starch

Get rid of fuss and muss... use the modern ironing day aid, Dazzle Liquid Starch. No cooking... no messy pots to clean. It's ready-to-use... concentrated... just add water. It penetrates fabrics... they stay fresh, clean-looking longer! A "smoothing" ingredient makes ironing easier... saves your time, energy.

NEW PALTZ NEWS

Village Board Meeting Monday

New Paltz, July 28—The regular monthly meeting of the Village Board was held Monday evening in the Municipal Building with all members of the board present.

Following a short discussion it was decided to purchase a power saw to cut the fallen village trees.

A letter was read from Mrs. Robert Pyle, president of the League of Women Voters, stating their belief that zoning is needed in the village now more than ever before. They will be glad to offer any help with the board on this matter. They offered their help six years ago when the same problem arose.

Mayor Robert Reid feels committees should be appointed for this work, along with water detail, dump problems, recreation and swimming for the future, traffic, which will be increased with the opening of the Thruway, and other similar village problems. It is his hope to get a state representative here to study the street and traffic situation and offer some advice.

Mayor Reid read a letter from the state requiring certain questionnaires to be filled out and mailed to them by August 1 and August 7. These questionnaires concern the type of roads in the village, their dimensions, and how much traffic is found on each on an average day.

Fire Chief Ernest Ahlberg brought up the question to the board of what can be done about the traffic around the Catholic and Reformed Churches on Sunday mornings, since there is a narrow passage with the parked cars there. Mayor Reid asked Robert Jansen, trustee, and head of the street committee, to look into the situation and try to arrive at a solution satisfactory to all. Among the list of needed articles the fire chief read to the board were eight directional lights for the fire and tank trucks. Mayor Reid gave Mr. Ahlberg the authority to price these signals and purchase eight of them. The rest of the articles will be gone over carefully and considered in comparison to how much the budget will allow.

Treasurer Frank Slack gave his report to the board as follows: The total receipt of taxes $12,924.17. Outstanding taxes are $3,923.78. The water rent collected was $888.66. The total parking meter receipts for the month of July were $579.88, while the total for June was $576.37. The total for the two months was $1,156.25.

The ordinance on the new sewer bill will go into effect the end of August, and from that time on everyone will be charged half of their water bill to be paid for sewer, plus the full water bill as was the custom.

Mayor Reid appointed a committee of three to draw up plans and specifications for the new tank and truck and to advertise for bids. Trustee Campbell, DuBois, Fire Chief Ahlberg, and mayor or acting mayor were appointed to the committee.

Trustee Jansen asked for an amendment to the parking meter ordinance allowing for 13 new meters, 12 of them to be put on Church street from the no parking area at Main to North Front street on the westerly side.

Before the close of the meeting it was unanimously agreed to appoint Raymond Morris to take the place of Al Sutherland on the water board during Mr. Sutherland's vacation.

Hope for Lepers

Brazzaville, French Equatorial Africa (P) — There is hope for the 56,000 lepers in French Equatorial Africa that progression of their disease will be stopped and a near certainty that the following generation will hear of leprosy as a rare disease like the plague in Europe or America. The French Equatorial African health service, made the prediction in a report on a new campaign against leprosy. The campaign has been made possible by use of sulfone drugs which have revolutionized the traditional methods of caring for lepers.

Well, Well!

Anderson, S. C. (P) — There's an old joke about stealing a well. A deep well pump, including the motor, a 30-gallon tank, and a quantity of pipe were stolen from a well outside a house under construction.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Think About Hand Before You Play

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

How would you play the hand shown today at a contract of four spades? It's all right to look at all of the cards before making up your mind.

The normal line of play is to win the opening heart lead with the ace, continuing with a trump finesse. East naturally wins with the king of spades and makes a safe return—such as a trump, a heart, or a diamond.

Declarer must now try to establish the diamond in the hope of discarding two of dummy's losing clubs on his own long diamonds. Unfortunately for South, however, West wins the enemy's sure diamond trick and promptly leads a club through the dummy. Now the defenders must take two club tricks, to add to their diamond and their trump, thus defeating the contract.

The correct line of play is to refuse the very first trick! When East puts up the ten of hearts at the first trick, he is allowed to hold it.

East probably will return a heart for safety (no return can

The idea is to give the enemy a heart trick instead of a diamond, an exchange which costs South nothing. The advantage is that this one trick is given to East, who cannot damage declarer by switching to clubs.

Clifton, Ill. (P)—Cutworms, working around the clock, ruined Art Hansen's 40-acre field of corn. The glossy worms chewed away at the newly grown corn during the night and another species, the black cutworm, took over the day shift.

Celebrates 100th Birthday

Mrs. Sara Dean, mother of the Rev. Stanley Dean of Church of the Holy Cross, Pine Grove avenue, celebrated her 100th year at a lawn party held at the church Tuesday evening. She is wearing her "Aunt Sally's dress," worn when her aunt went to California by way of Cape Horn in 1849. The coat dress is black wool with paisley print bordering the skirt and the front, to be worn with either a bustle or hoopskirt, and "every stitch done by hand," as Mrs. Dean explained. (Freeman photo)

Resident Recalls Hiding Slaves In Civil War

Calling her early years, her "Gone with the Wind" period, Mrs. Sara Dean recalls a childhood spent working in the fields on her father's farm in Pennsylvania while the Civil War raged close by. Mrs. Dean passed the century mark Tuesday, with a party at the Church of the Holy Cross celebrating the occasion.

The congregation who attended the lawn party brought a donation of a penny for every year to Mrs. Dean. The Rev. Stanley Dean of Church of the Holy Cross, will donate this collection to a worthy charity, according to his mother's wishes.

Mrs. Dean is spry enough to go for automobile rides "when the weather is good," receive callers, has to see weddings, and expresses a wish to take an airplane ride. "I feel that's the only thrill I have left," Mrs. Dean explained.

Not owning up to a year over 56, Mrs. Dean "thinks young," spends much of her time resting and remembering happy periods in her lifetime, and refuses to wear black, "an old lady's color." When interviewed in the antique-filled home, she was wearing a pale grey polka dotted dress with high collar and long sleeves.

Born in Pennsylvania, Mrs. Dean recalls that her father helped with the "underground system" near Altoona for helping slaves escape from the south during the War between the States. A clever ruse, a well, part of which was filled with water, part a hiding place for the slaves, served the underground. A signal on the pump handle warned fugitives that the "revenue officers" were near, and should stay concealed.

Longevity a Habit
Her father's people were slain in Indian massacres in the territory of which they were the original settlers before the Revolutionary War.

Longevity is a habit in her family, though, in more peaceful times. Her maternal grandfather lived to 108, and her father, to 100. Reminiscing about her childhood, aided by prompting from the Rev. Mr. Dean, the delicate, white-haired Mrs. Dean recalled her chore of cradling wheat and flailing it, then grinding it through coffee grinders during the Civil War, "because we were hungry."

Her favorite Lincoln story concerns the day she and her grandfather stopped along the road near their farm in Pennsylvania to water the horses. A woman rushed out on the porch of her home shouting, "Oh, Mr. White, did you hear the good news! Old Abe Lincoln's dead! If only we can believe it!"

Mr. White, a firm Lincoln supporter, ordered the copperhead sympathizer into her house in no uncertain terms.

Vivid still are her memories of "swabbing brothers" and sisters' throats with red pepper and vinegar when they had diphtheria and scarlet fever." One of 10 children, Mrs. Dean was the only one unaffected by either disease, and nursed the others back to health.

Seamstress Without Sewing Machine
Making "barrels of apple butter" each fall, baking bread in outdoor and dutch ovens, and sewing everything from quilts to party dresses entirely by hand, long before the sewing machine, in her work as seamstress, were part of Mrs. Dean's recollections of her earlier years.

After her marriage, in 1870, Mrs. Dean and her husband lived in Altoona, Pa., then moved to New Jersey. The Lions Club of Altoona has just sent a letter to the Rev. Mr. Dean saying that according to their records, Mrs. Dean must be 100, and that they wanted to know if she's celebrating her birthday. The Rev. Mr. Dean wrote back a strong affirmative answer.

Two other sons of Mrs. Dean are now deceased. One, Atlee, was a doctor. The other, Elton, taught English in public schools in Crescent, N. J. Mrs. Dean lived in Crescent until his death, then moved to Kingston.

The Rev. Mr. Dean, who received his degree from the University of the South, Theological School, was a missionary in Tennessee, and spent 13 years at a church in Liberty before coming to Kingston 12 years ago. He has an adopted son who is in the insurance business in Indiana. He and his wife live in Bloomington, Ind.

The lady who won't be called "Granny," has kept apace with every modern improvement, now taking autos, radio, television and the numerous household gadgets in her stride. But Mrs. Dean really would like to have an airplane ride, to add to her experiences with this modern age. (M. D.)

Brodsky on Dean's List

An Ellenville student, Irwin L. Brodsky, 118 Center street, a junior in journalism is among 122 at the Pennsylvania State University named to the dean's list of the College of Liberal Arts. An average of 2.50 or better is required to make the list, according to Dr. Ben Euwema, dean of the college.

NOT A CARD PLAYER

A letter today explains: "While I do play cards on occasion, I am bored to death with all card games. Most of my friends, on the other hand, would rather play cards than eat and whenever my husband and I go to their houses, it seems we have no sooner arrived, than the hostess suggests playing cards. I would much rather spend the evening talking. Would it be rude, on my part, to say that I don't care to play cards, nor does good manners demand that I play and say nothing?"

Answer: I am afraid you will have to play cards as long as they want you to when you are in their houses. When you invite them to your house you can have your evening of talking.

Paying Friend's Way

Dear Mrs. Post: Some time soon, a friend of mine who lives in a distant city will come and spend her two weeks' vacation with us. Will you please tell me what is expected of my husband and me in regard to paying for her entertainment. We live in a large city where there is much to do and see and all this is her first visit here I am sure she will want to see as much as possible. Whenever we go anywhere—to the theatre, sightseeing, etc., is my husband supposed to pay her way all the time? My husband and I are in modest circumstances; whereas she has a good job and is well able to pay her own way.

Answer: Take her as often as you can afford. Then when you can no longer afford to go, stay home. If she suggests going somewhere tell her frankly you cannot afford to go and must therefore stay contentedly home. If she can, she'll undoubtedly offer to take you.

'Pour Prendre Conge'

Dear Mrs. Post: My employer received a visiting card with the letters "P.P.C." written in the lower left-hand corner. He hasn't any idea what it means and asked me to find out from you.

Answer: The exact translation is "To take leave." In other words, people send out these cards to say "good bye" when they are leaving town.

Twenty serving questions and answers are included in Mrs. Post's booklet No. 504, "The Etiquette of Table Setting." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 25 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of the Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Lorna Van Orden Honored by Shower

Mrs. Eugene Denniston of New Paltz was hostess at a tea and shower at Watson Hollow Inn Tuesday afternoon for Miss Lorna Van Orden, whose engagement to Oliver Vail of Millbrook was announced two weeks ago.

At the close of the tea Miss Van Orden was handed a slip of paper instructing her to "follow the parasol trail." This consisted of tiny parasols which ran from her place at the tea table to a gift table in the adjoining room which was completely set for breakfast for two, consisting of a hand blocked table cover, designed by The Tiltlets; spruce green Metropolitan Ware; black Catalonian glassware; and black linen napkins. The gift card from the group centered the table which was decorated with a charming shower girl of silver lace and more tiny parasols.

Guests included Mrs. Joseph E. Hasbrouck and Mrs. Joseph O. Hasbrouck of Modena, Mrs. Fred Wilkoff of Highland, Mrs. Frank Baker and Mrs. Frank Nicklin of Marlborough, Mrs. Harold Delamater of Poughkeepsie and Mrs. Roy D. Denniston and Miss Susana Denniston of Walkill.

Attending from New Paltz were Mrs. John Randall, mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Kenneth H. Hasbrouck and Mrs. Jerome LeFevre. The bride's sister, Mrs. Walter Wenzel of Branchville, N. J., and Mrs. Raymond Jenkins and Miss Margaret Jenkins of Salisbury, N. C., completed the guest list.

"It was so wonderful to be in his arms once more!"
"A Lipstick Brought My Husband And Me Back to Romance Again!"

"It all came about when I read a Caryn Gae Lipstick ad that said, 'Smoke, eat or drink what you like. Caryn Gae banishes these odors'."

"My husband doesn't smoke but I do," says Mrs. Lyn Davies of Long Island, New York. "A definite chill was falling between us because of what he called my 'smoker's breath.' So when I read that ad about Caryn Gae banishing odors caused by smoking, eating and drinking, I decided to try it. What could I lose? Amazing as it seems, this lipstick really did the trick. And my husband and I are back to the 'good old days and good old ways' again!"
The secret of Caryn Gae lipstick is that it contains Formula KBS—a remarkable new breath freshener. It is so effective that all you do is this: After applying Caryn Gae, rub your tongue over your lips and around inside your mouth. The moisture activates the KBS, and it acts like a mouth wash. Odors from tobacco, food and drink vanish instantly. And in addition, Caryn Gae is a gorgeous lipstick. Indelible type, it is positively guaranteed non-drying. Your lips look and feel soft and moist as long as you have it on. In six new heavenly colors, $1.25 plus tax. Get your Caryn Gae Lipstick in Kingston at United Pharmacy, Dedrick's Drug Store, Franklin Pharmacy, Governor Clinton Pharmacy, Central Pharmacy, Bongartz Pharmacy.

Victoria Scheffel, Charles Tobiasse Nuptials Are Held

Saugerties, July 29—Miss Victoria L. Scheffel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Scheffel of Lighthouse Drive, Saugerties, was united in marriage to Charles B. Tobiasse, son of Osten Tobiasse of Malden-on-Hudson on Sunday afternoon in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Atonement.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Theodore E. Hammer, pastor of Atonement Church, and the Rev. Ray E. Kulman, former pastor of Atonement Church and present pastor of the First Lutheran Church in Schenectady.

For the occasion lily of the valley and white gladioli adorned the altar. Ernest Tobiasse, soloist, rendered I Love You Truly, Because and The Lord's Prayer to the accompaniment of Miss Jeanette Spring, organist, who also played traditional wedding refrains.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length gown with rose point lace waist, long sleeves, a sweetheart neckline, and peplum rose point over a satin and net train. A Juliet cap studded with sequins and pearls supported her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white rose buds with baby breath.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Floyd Burgher of Saugerties, wore a floor length strapless gown of orchid lace and net with bouffant skirt worn with a chantilly lace jacket. A matching large horsehair picture hat completed her ensemble. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Miss Katherine Sloboda of West Camp and Miss Elaine Scheffel, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaids. They both wore floor-length gowns similar to that of the honor attendant in yellow and both carried colonial bouquets of orchid carnations.

Another of the bridegroom, Osten Tobiasse, Jr., of Cementon served as best man. George Sparling of Schenectady and John Ferguson of Saugerties were the ushers. The men in the bridal party wore white jackets and black trousers.

The reception for 150 guests was held at the Cloverleaf Inn on the Saugerties-Thruway interchange. Frankie Zano and his orchestra supplied the music for dancing.

For the wedding journey through Illinois the bride chose for her traveling ensemble a light blue linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride, a graduate of Saugerties High School, was employed with the Grand Union super market in Saugerties.

The bridegroom, also a graduate of Saugerties High School, is in the U. S. Air Force stationed at Chanute Air Force Base, Illinois, where he serves as an instructor and holds an A/2 rating.

Upon completion of their wedding journey the newlyweds will make their home at Rantoul, Ill.

Prince Victor Looks Like Goshen Favorite

Vernon, July 29 (P)—Prince Victor looks as a horse to be reckoned with in harness racing's annual Hambletonian classic at Goshen next Wednesday.

The Prince established himself last night as a top challenger to the favored Stenographer by capturing the first two dashes of the $15,000 Hambletonian Test at Vernon Downs.

His victories, sweeping the first division of the grand circuit event, were at the expense of eight fellow Hambletonian hopefuls, including Newport Dream, once a heavy favorite for the blue ribbon classic.

Harlan led a nine-horse field to the wire in the first dash of the second division, and Cronus took the second dash.

Stenographer was not entered in the event.

Prince's Time

Prince Victor, owned by Sam Huttenbauer of Cincinnati and driven by Jim Hackett, clicked off the first dash in 2:02.1, and the second in 2:02.

Newport Dream, the top money-winner as a 2-year-old last season, finished second both times. The colt had been idled by a mysterious leg ailment and was making his first start of the season.

Bishop Maplecroft was third in both heats.

Prince Victor paid $6.00, $3.00 and $3.60 in the first dash, and $4.00, $2.50 and $2.50 in the second.

Harlan, owned by C. M. Provost of Pittsburgh and reined by Del Miller, was clocked in 2:02 in his winning dash. Darn Safe was the runner-up and Lord Pick third.

Harlan paid $8.00, $4.00 and $3.20.

Slowest in Test

Cronus 2:02.3 was the slowest winning time of the test but good enough to nip Harlan and Darn Safe. Cronus, owned by the Arden Homestead Stable of Goshen and driven by Harry Pownall Sr., had finished sixth in the first heat.

His victory paid $4.20, $2.90 and $2.40.

The $7,500 Flora Temple filly stake for 2-year-old trotters went to Miss Rodney, who won in 2:05.1. Magda Hanover was second and Arvalia Hanover third.

Miss Rodney, owned by C. W. Phellis of Greenwich, Conn., paid $3.70, $2.70 and $2.20. Fred Egan was at the reins.

Junior National In Fourth Round

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 29 (P)—The ranks of seeded players in the National Junior and Boys' Tennis tournament were scheduled to be cut today as the meet entered its fourth round.

In junior singles, the favorites tag was pinned on Jerry Moss, the second seeded player from Modesto, Calif., after the stunning upset of topspeeded Mike Franks, Los Angeles, in yesterday's third round by Robert Riley of Kansas City, Mo.

Moss, who yesterday whipped George Mandel, Astoria, N. Y., 6-1, 6-1, meets Maxwell Brown, a 15th-ranking player from Louisville, Ky., today.

Meanwhile Riley, a Kansas University student, prepared for his match with 12th-seeded Art Andrews of Iowa City, Iowa, after upsetting Franks, a junior finalist last year, in three sets yesterday, 3-6, 8-6, 6-2. Franks, who was the victim of an attack of pneumonia less than a month ago, tired in the third set against the always steady Riley.

Mays Safe in Double Steal

Willie Mays, New York Giants' center fielder, goes into a long slide, top, in double steal in fourth inning as Ray Jablonski, Cardinals' third baseman, awaits throw from catcher Bill Sarni in July 28 game at the Polo Grounds, New York. Willie hits the bag, bottom left, as ball hits Jablonski's arm and falls to the ground, lower right. Dusty Rhodes went to second on other half of double theft. Giants ended a six-game losing streak, beating Cardinals, 10-0. (AP Wire-photo).

THE SCOREBOARD

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves are building up steam for a fast sweep along the eastern seaboard which should determine whether there is any substance to the ghost of a chance they still hold in the National League pennant race.

A highly regarded entry during spring training, the Braves floundered through the first half of the season. But they've started to roll in the last two weeks and last night they ran their current winning streak to six games with a 6-4 victory at Pittsburgh.

A getaway game with the Pirates today will be followed by four games in Brooklyn starting tomorrow night, three in Philadelphia and three with the New York Giants.

It would take a virtual sweep to make the Braves' a serious threat. Teams have done it before, although not recently.

Milwaukee trails the second-place Dodgers by eight games and the Giants by 10. In the past week the Braves have cut their deficit by 5½ lengths.

Neither the Braves nor the Dodgers gained any ground yesterday because the Giants broke their six-game losing streak at the expense of the St. Louis Cardinals 10-0. Philadelphia vaulted into fourth place with a 3-2 victory over Cincinnati. Brooklyn defeated Chicago 3-1.

The Cleveland Indians kept rolling over the Boston Red Sox, 2-1, for the 15th time in 16 decisions. New York beat Chicago 7-5 on Mickey Mantle's three-run homer in the ninth. Joe Coleman pitched a three-hitter as Baltimore trimmed Washington 2-1 and Detroit trounced Philadelphia 10-2.

Milwaukee caught up with Pittsburgh after Preston Ward put the Pirates ahead with a two-run homer in the first. Rookie Hank Aaron drove in three runs with a pair of singles and a triple.

Johnny Antonelli handcuffed the Cardinals for his fifth shut-out and 15th victory. Jim Rhodes hit three home runs and Willie Mays banged his 36th of the season.

Brooklyn managed only four hits off the combined offerings of Dave Cole and Hal Jeffcoat but they were enough to give Russ Meyer his 15th consecutive victory over his old Chicago club. A Cub threat in the ninth when Ralph Kiner doubled and Hank Sauer singled was snuffed out by Jim Hughes, who came in with one out and struck out the next two batters.

The Phils' victory over Cincinnati came in the eighth as Earl Torgeson greeted relief pitcher Frank Smith with a triple and scored on Smoky Burgess' long sacrifice fly.

Early Wynn, who spaced 14 New York hits in his last start, gave up 11 more last night to Boston. The Red Sox bunched singles by Bill Consolo, Jim Pier-sall and Ted Williams for their only run. Cleveland won it in the sixth when Bob Avila singled and scored on Al Rosen's double. Vic Wertz single home Rosen. The Indians managed only five safeties off rookie Russ Kemmerer.

Mantle's homer in Chicago came with Irv Noren and Joe Collins on base in the ninth after the game had been held up 68 minutes by rain. The Yankees trailed 5-1 after seven innings but picked up three in the eighth before the storm.

Steve Souchock drove in six runs with two homers in Detroit's one-sided triumph over the Athletics.

Coleman bested Bob Porterfield of Washington in a pitching duel at Baltimore. He gave up three hits and lost his shut-out when he threw wild trying to pick Eddie Yost off third base in the first inning. A double by Clint Courtney and a single by pinch hitter Bobby Young drove in the Baltimore runs in the seventh.

BALLOONING HOME—Bryan Newkirk's Buzzy II, from Toronto, crosses finish line to take second straight race of international George Cup series on Lake Ontario, Rochester, N. Y.

Length of Furlong
Although the length of the furlong varied in different jurisdictions in the past, its most common length was an eighth of a mile or one side of a square, 10-acre plot.

In the first inning, E&R scored nine runs on five walks, 12 errors, and singles by Joe Modica and Frank Secreto.

Secreto stroked two singles besides his homer. Bob Bondar hit a trio of singles and Paul Giannuzzi had two for VFW.

Batting—Mickey Mantle, New York Yankees, hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning to give the Yankees a 7-5 victory over Chicago.

Pitching—Johnny Antonelli, New York Giants, won his 15th game and his fifth shutout, beating St. Louis 10-0.

A scale model of the earth eight inches in diameter would appear to be smooth.

FOUR GOSH SAKES!—Surprise was registered in the Yankees' dressing room by Irv Noren as he pointed to the bats signifying the number of hits garnered by the outfielder in a game won by his home run in the ninth inning. The face lighted by the grin blonged to the winning pitcher of that day, Whitey Ford. Noren batted at phenomenal .560 clip in his hot streak. (NEA)

Coss Victor Over Flye by 6-3, 6-3

Southampton, N. Y., July 29 (AP)—The 65th annual Meadow Club invitation tennis tournament moves into its first round today with all seeded players except Bernard Barten scheduled to play two matches.

Tony Trabert, Cincinnati, the nation's top ranked performer, meets Tim Coss, Washington, D. C., in his first match. It is not to be considered a soft touch for the Davis cupper. Coss, eastern intercollegiate champion from Washington, D. C., played a fine brand of tennis in yesterday's qualifying round by sweeping Don Flye, Tacoma, 6-3, 6-3.

Barten, conqueror of Trabert in the final round of the national clay court championships, won't arrive here until late tonight. That means the left-hander from San Angelo, Tex., will have to play three matches Friday to catch up with the field.

Other Features

Other feature first round matches today bring together Douglas Reid, Australia and George Ball, New York; Atsushi Miyagi, Japan, and Dick Gain, Edgartown, Mass.; Kossie Kamo, Japan, and Sidney Wood, New York; Louis Ayala, Chile, and Fred Hagist, Sacramento, Calif.; Billy Talbert, New York, and Reijm Kamo, Japan; Roger Becker, England, and High Sweeney, New York; Eddie Moylan, Trenton, N. J., and Fontana, Toronto.

No seeded players got into action yesterday when 36 performers scrambled for 16 open spots in today's first round.

Farm Problem

Fairgrove, Mich. (AP)—A 25-year-old Englishman, studying farming methods in Michigan, can't understand how Americans can operate a 400-acre farm with just two men. Pat Nutt, an exchange student, and his father run two Yorkshire farms covering 760 acres. It takes 17 men, he says, to operate them. Weather is a big factor, Nutt says. England's growing season is longer but planting is limited to two weeks. In Michigan the planting can be spread over two months. Nutt says the farm machinery is about the same in both places.

Named Russia

The Finns named Russia for the Swedes. A small colony was founded on the Dnieper by Swedish tribesmen and the Finns called the colonists "Rhoutsis." Later this became "Ros" and then "Rus," which meant rovers or seafarers.

Veterans Figure Littler Strongest In Kansas Open

Kansas City, July 29 (AP)—The veteran pros figure young Gene Littler as the man to beat in the $20,000 Kansas City Open golf tournament beginning on the parched Blue Hills Country Club course today.

Littler, the 1953 National Amateur champion and runner-up in the last U. S. Open, has been a pro only since January, but his ability is commanding respect of all the established stars.

The former San Diego State College star, now pro at Palm Springs, Calif., is rated along with Cary Middlecoff, the Memphis, Tenn., dentist playing out of Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., and Ed (Porky) Oliver, Lemont, Ill., as best bets.

Both Littler and Middlecoff passed up a pro-junior event on the 6,625-yard, par-73 Blue Hills course yesterday. Earl Stewart, Jr., of Dallas and his three teenage-partners won the nine hole contest with a best ball score of 31, five strokes under par. Stewart picked up 250 for his efforts.

Takes Up Ministry
A distinguished actor, Dr. Haynes left the stage and screen because he felt he "could be of greater service in the ministry."

In August, 1952, he resigned as pastor of St. Mark's, AME Church, 12 Foxhall avenue, after five years in the parish. He said at the time he would not take another charge because he hadn't had a good rest for the past 15 years.

At this time Dr. Haynes also resigned from the New York AME Annual Conference of the AME Church. He was a qualified minister of the Central Hudson Missionary Baptist Association and a member of the Metropolitan Baptist Church of Albany.

Dr. Haynes starred several years ago as De Lawd in the Broadway production of Green Pastures. He also has the distinction of being the first person in history to give a representation of the Deity to English audiences. A one-hour transcription of Green Pastures was broadcast by the British Broadcasting Company in October, 1949.

He had wide experience in theatre and motion pictures. In the original stage production of Green Pastures he played the roles of Adam and Hezrel, 1,862 times in five years, playing in every state in the Union, in practically every important city in each state and in Canada and Mexico.

Played in Hallelujah
He played the leading role in the first all-Negro talking picture, Hallelujah, which was directed by King Vidor, famed for his Big Parade.

Other stage and screen productions in which Dr. Haynes appeared were So Red the Rose, Can This Be Dixie, Escape From Devil's Island, The Last Mile, White Sisters, Little Boy Blue, The Invisible Ray, Earth, The Bottom of the Cup, Androcles and the Lion and many others.

Since giving up the theatre he had been pastor of churches in Brooklyn, Westbury, Huntington, Bay Shore and Olean.

Held Four Degrees
He was a graduate of Morris Brown, Atlanta University, Chicago University, Turner Theological Seminary and the College of the City of New York, earning the degrees of bachelor of arts, master of arts, bachelor of theology and doctor of divinity.

He traveled extensively in the United States, Canada and Mexico and made personal appearances with his pictures through France, South America, England, Scotland and Wales. He studied with Max Rheinhardt of Germany and Flo Ziegfeld of New York.

Milk Truck Goes Down Ravine On Steep Highway

Port Jervis, July 29 (AP)—A truck loaded with 3,500 gallons of milk rolled off a steep highway grade and down a 150-foot ravine yesterday, but the driver was only bruised and not a drop of milk was spilled.

It was the second accident in this region within five days in which a milk truck went out of control on a sharp hill, but yesterday's results were far less serious. On Saturday three persons were killed and a number injured in a crash at Liberty.

In the accident here, state police said that a steering knuckle on the big trailer broke as it started down a grade on Route 6 and went into the ravine on a curve.

The driver was Warren Beckwith, of Prompton, Pa. The truck was owned by the Corners Milk Transportation Co., Honesdale, Pa.
